LINCOLN

To

Marjorie M. Nichols

with the hope that it may convey to her some small measure of our gratitude for her unfailing kindness and untiring labor in Lincoln High School's behalf, this 1926 Lincolnian is respectfully dedicated

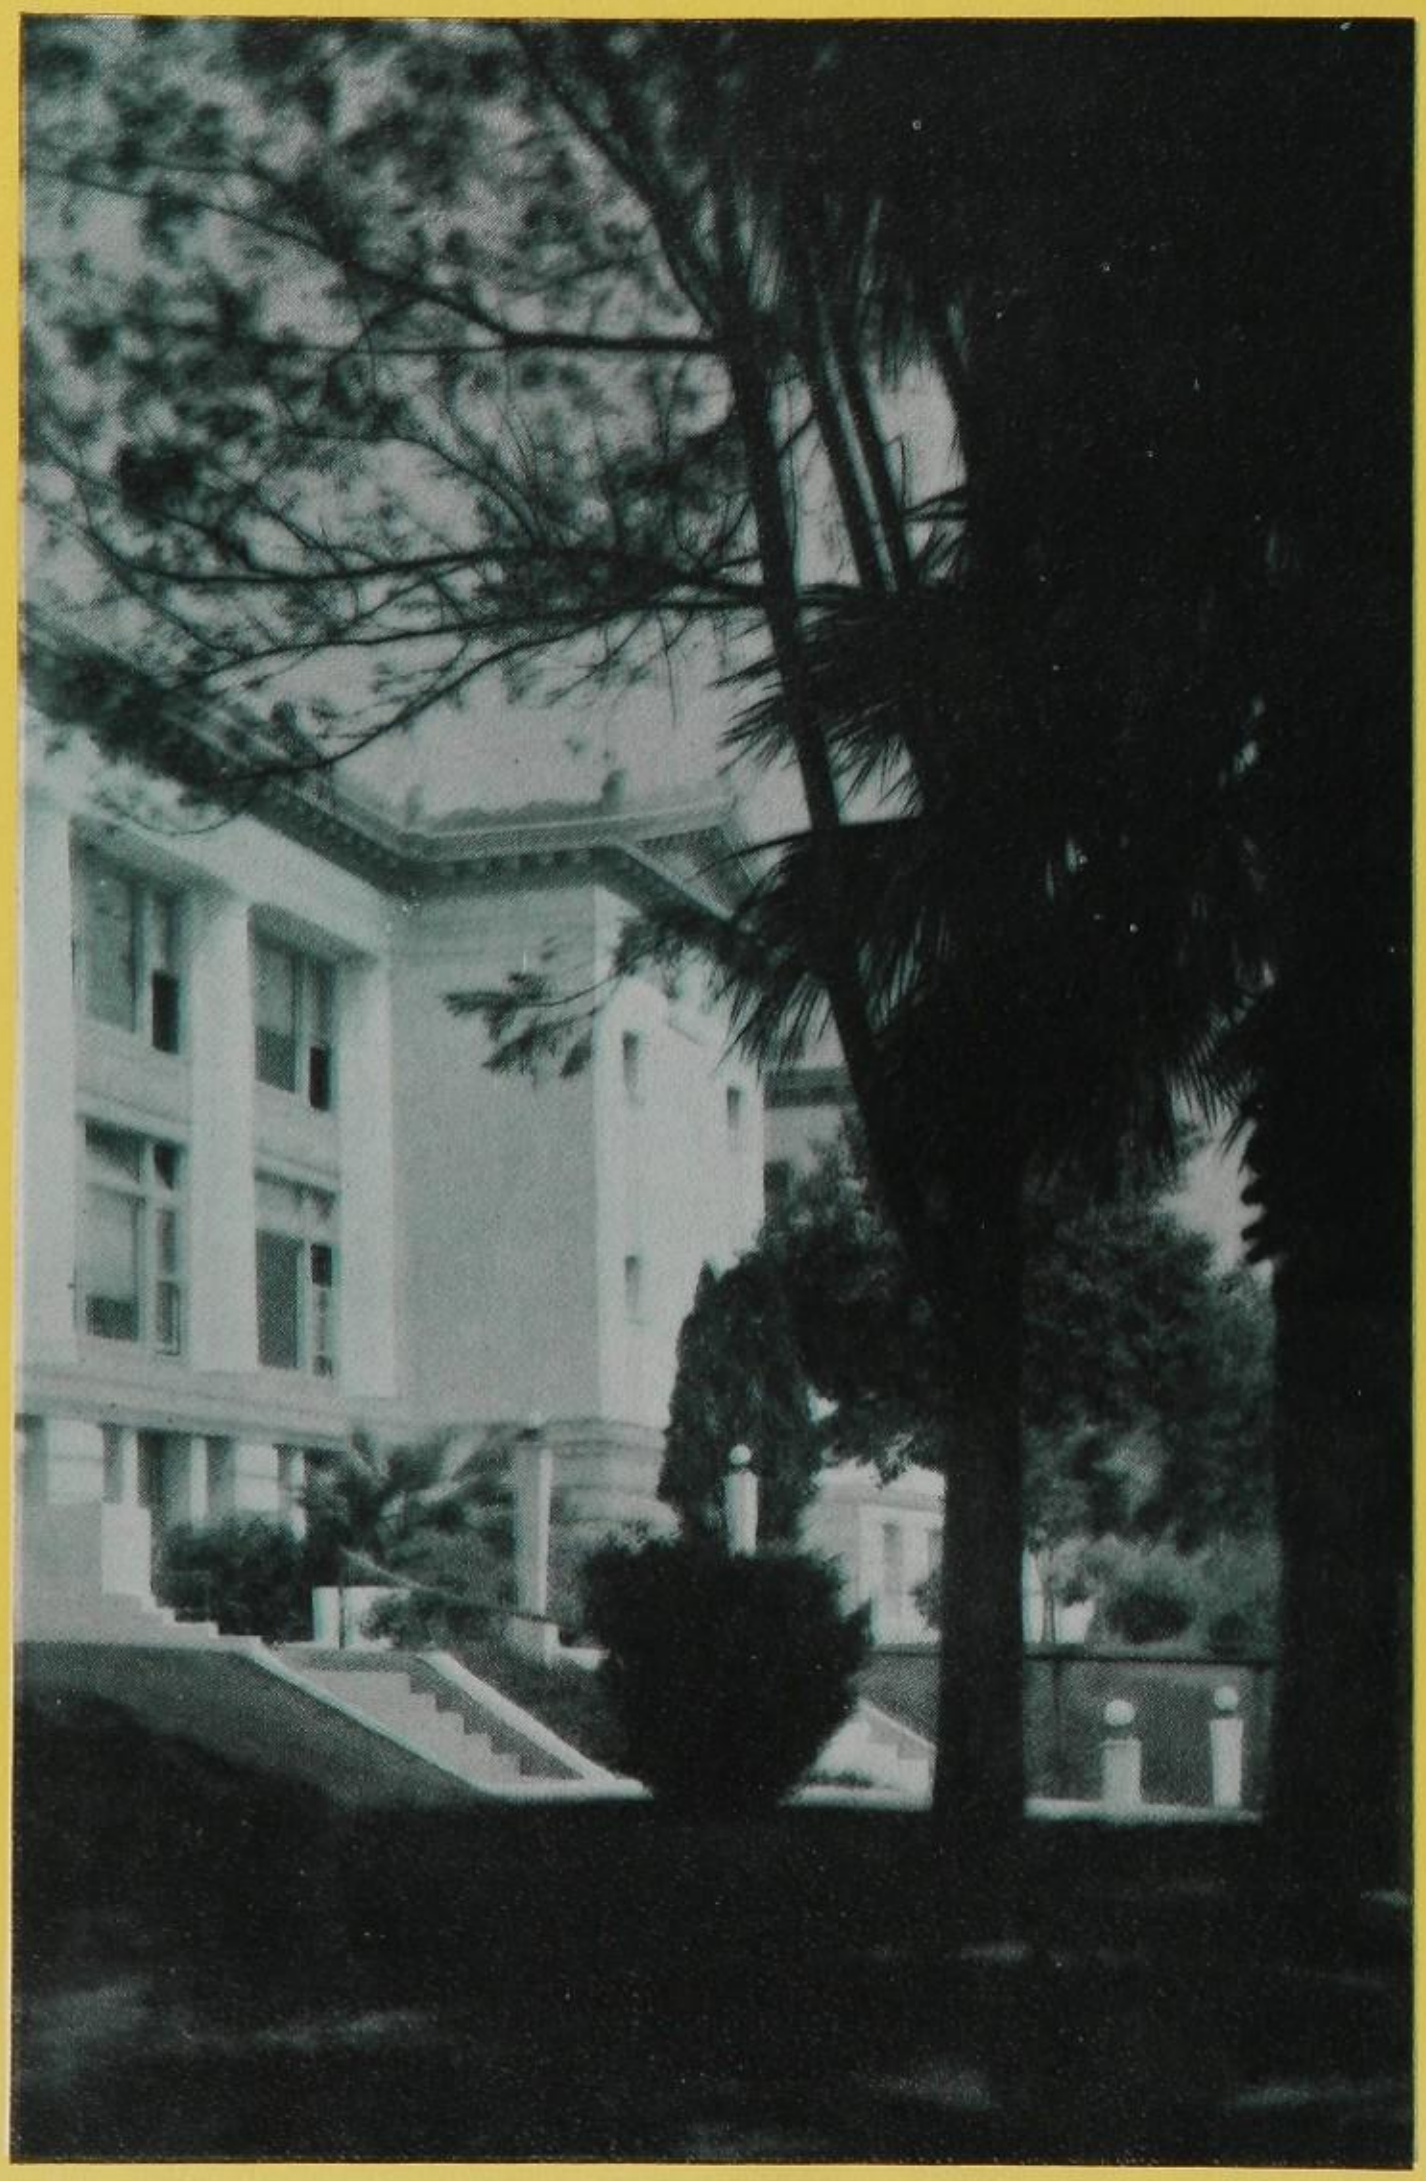
Principal's Farewell Address to the Graduating Classes of 1926

THIS annual of yours will always serve as a pleasant reminder of the happy days at Lincoln. In its pictures you will re-live your loyalties to teachers, friends, and school. In its dedication you will recall the splendid woman you have honored, whose greatest pleasure was ever service to us all. In its organizations and sports you felt again the spirit of teamwork and zealous effort and, best of all, the warm glow of victory. In its memories of operas and plays you swayed again to the lilt of the music, again enjoyed the colorful scene and masterly acting. In it you are again young, again eager and friendly, again Lincoln at its best.

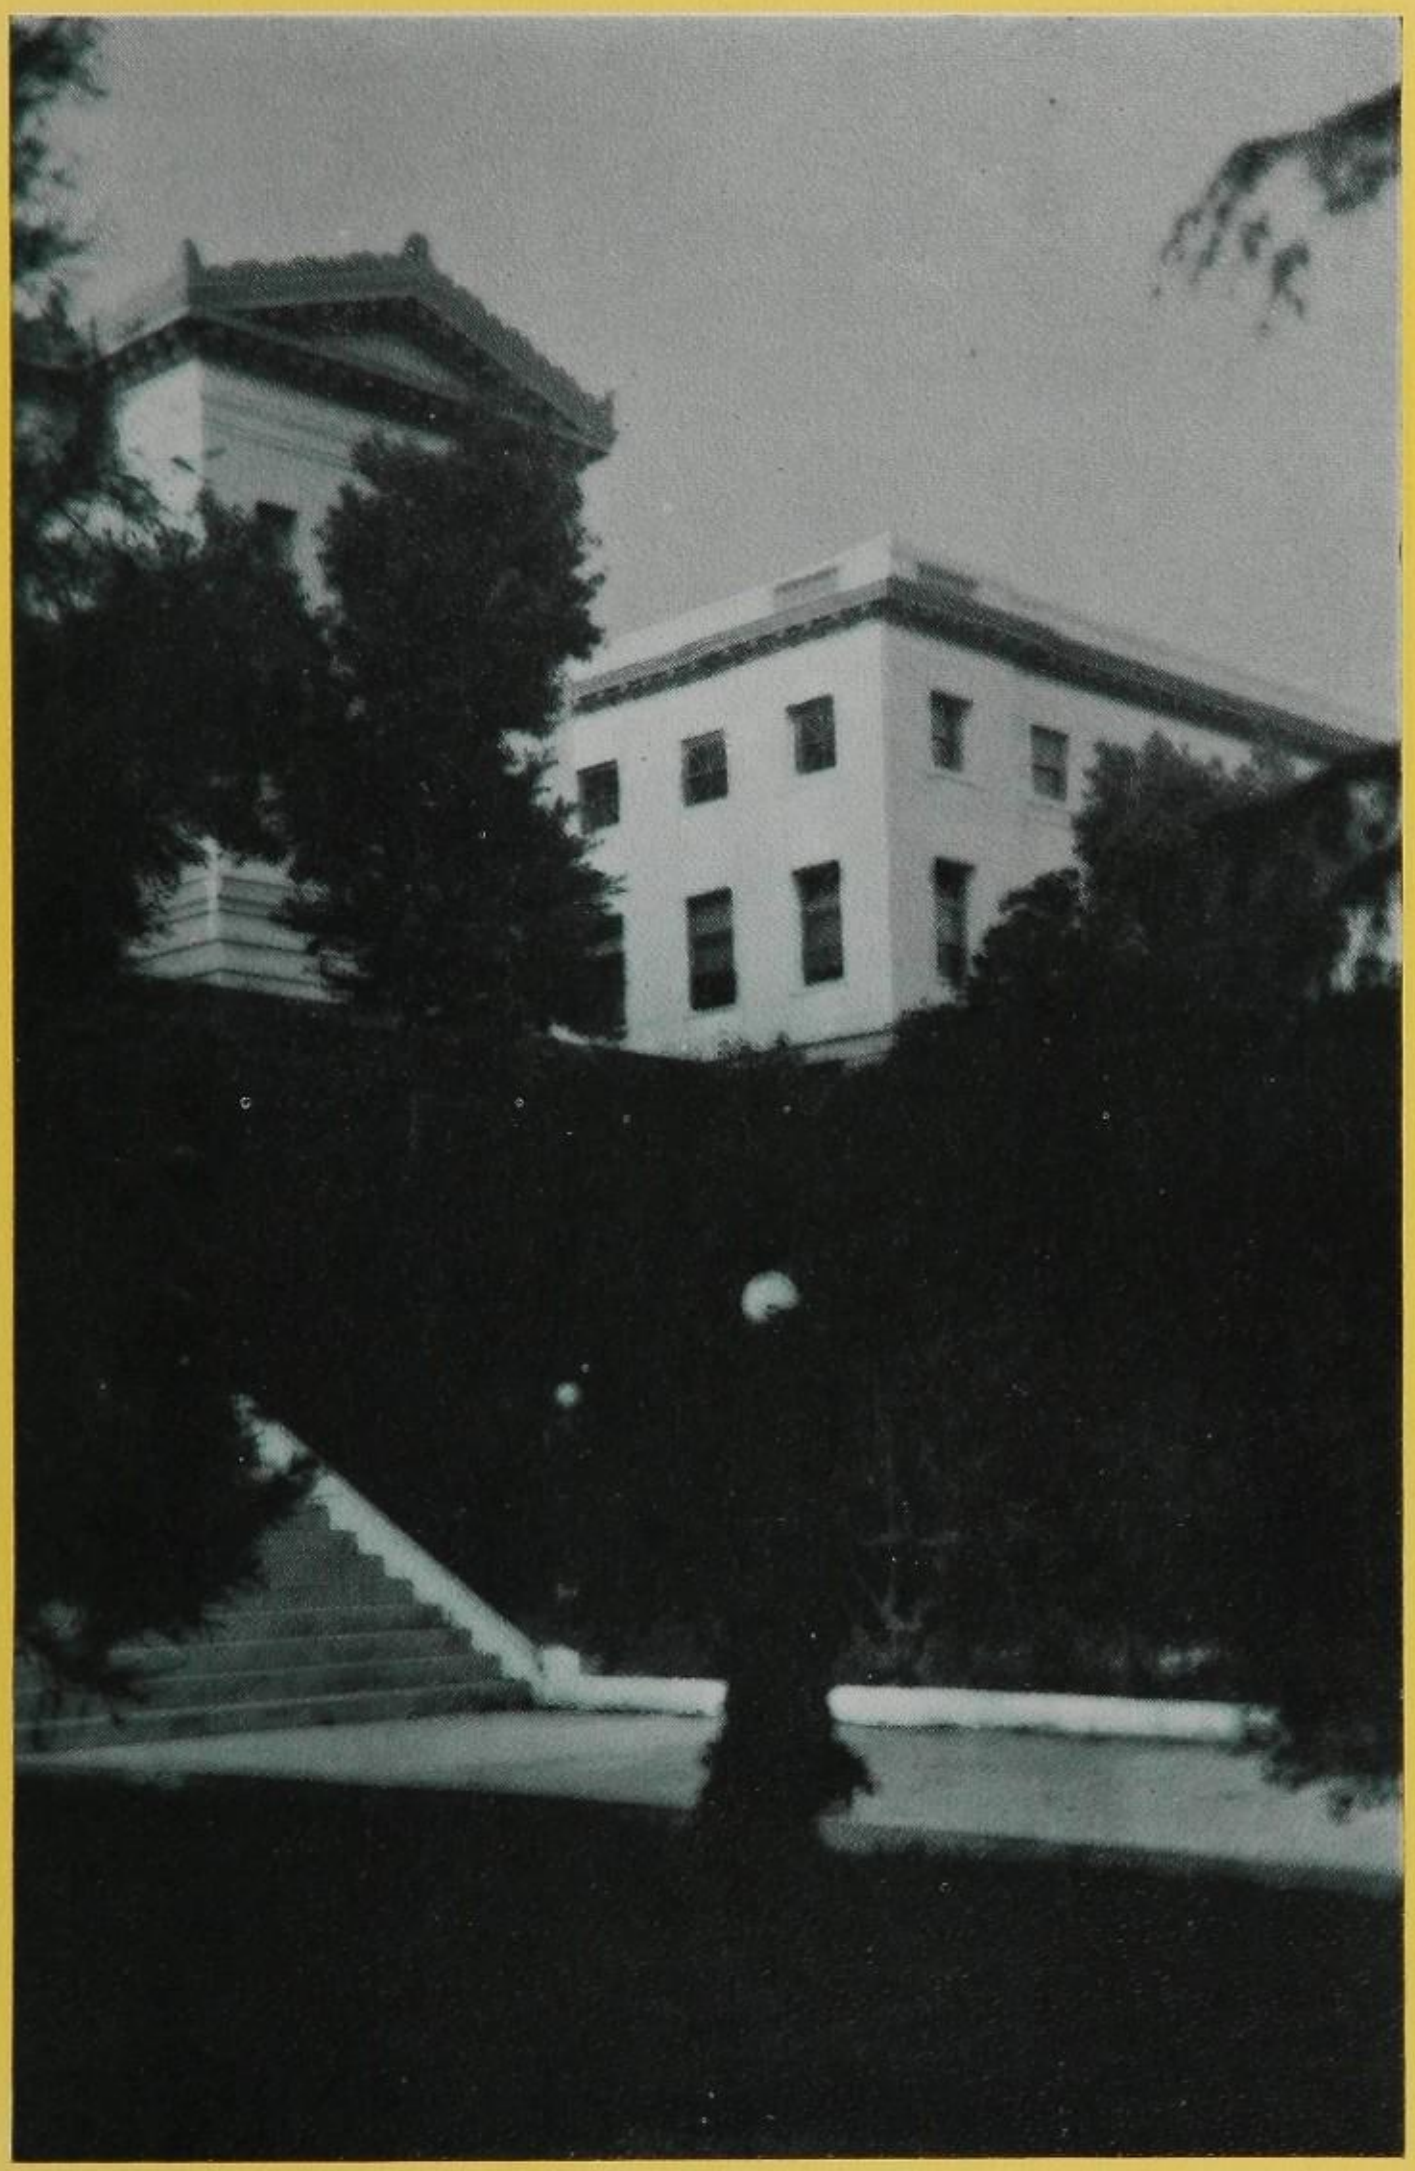
You always will be Lincoln, remember, and your spirit the Lincoln spirit. We know you as the finest classes it has been Lincoln's good fortune to have, and so we send you out, prideful in our love and appreciation of you, confident that you will try hard, always to be kind, tolerant, and understanding, that you will be honest and dependable and will feel for yourself and toward your fellows a real sense of responsibility. Be happy. Be helpful. Try to find joy in the work by which you make your living. Come back to us often, and remember Lincoln's dearest treasures are your loyalty and love.

ETHEL PERCY ANDRUS,
Principal.

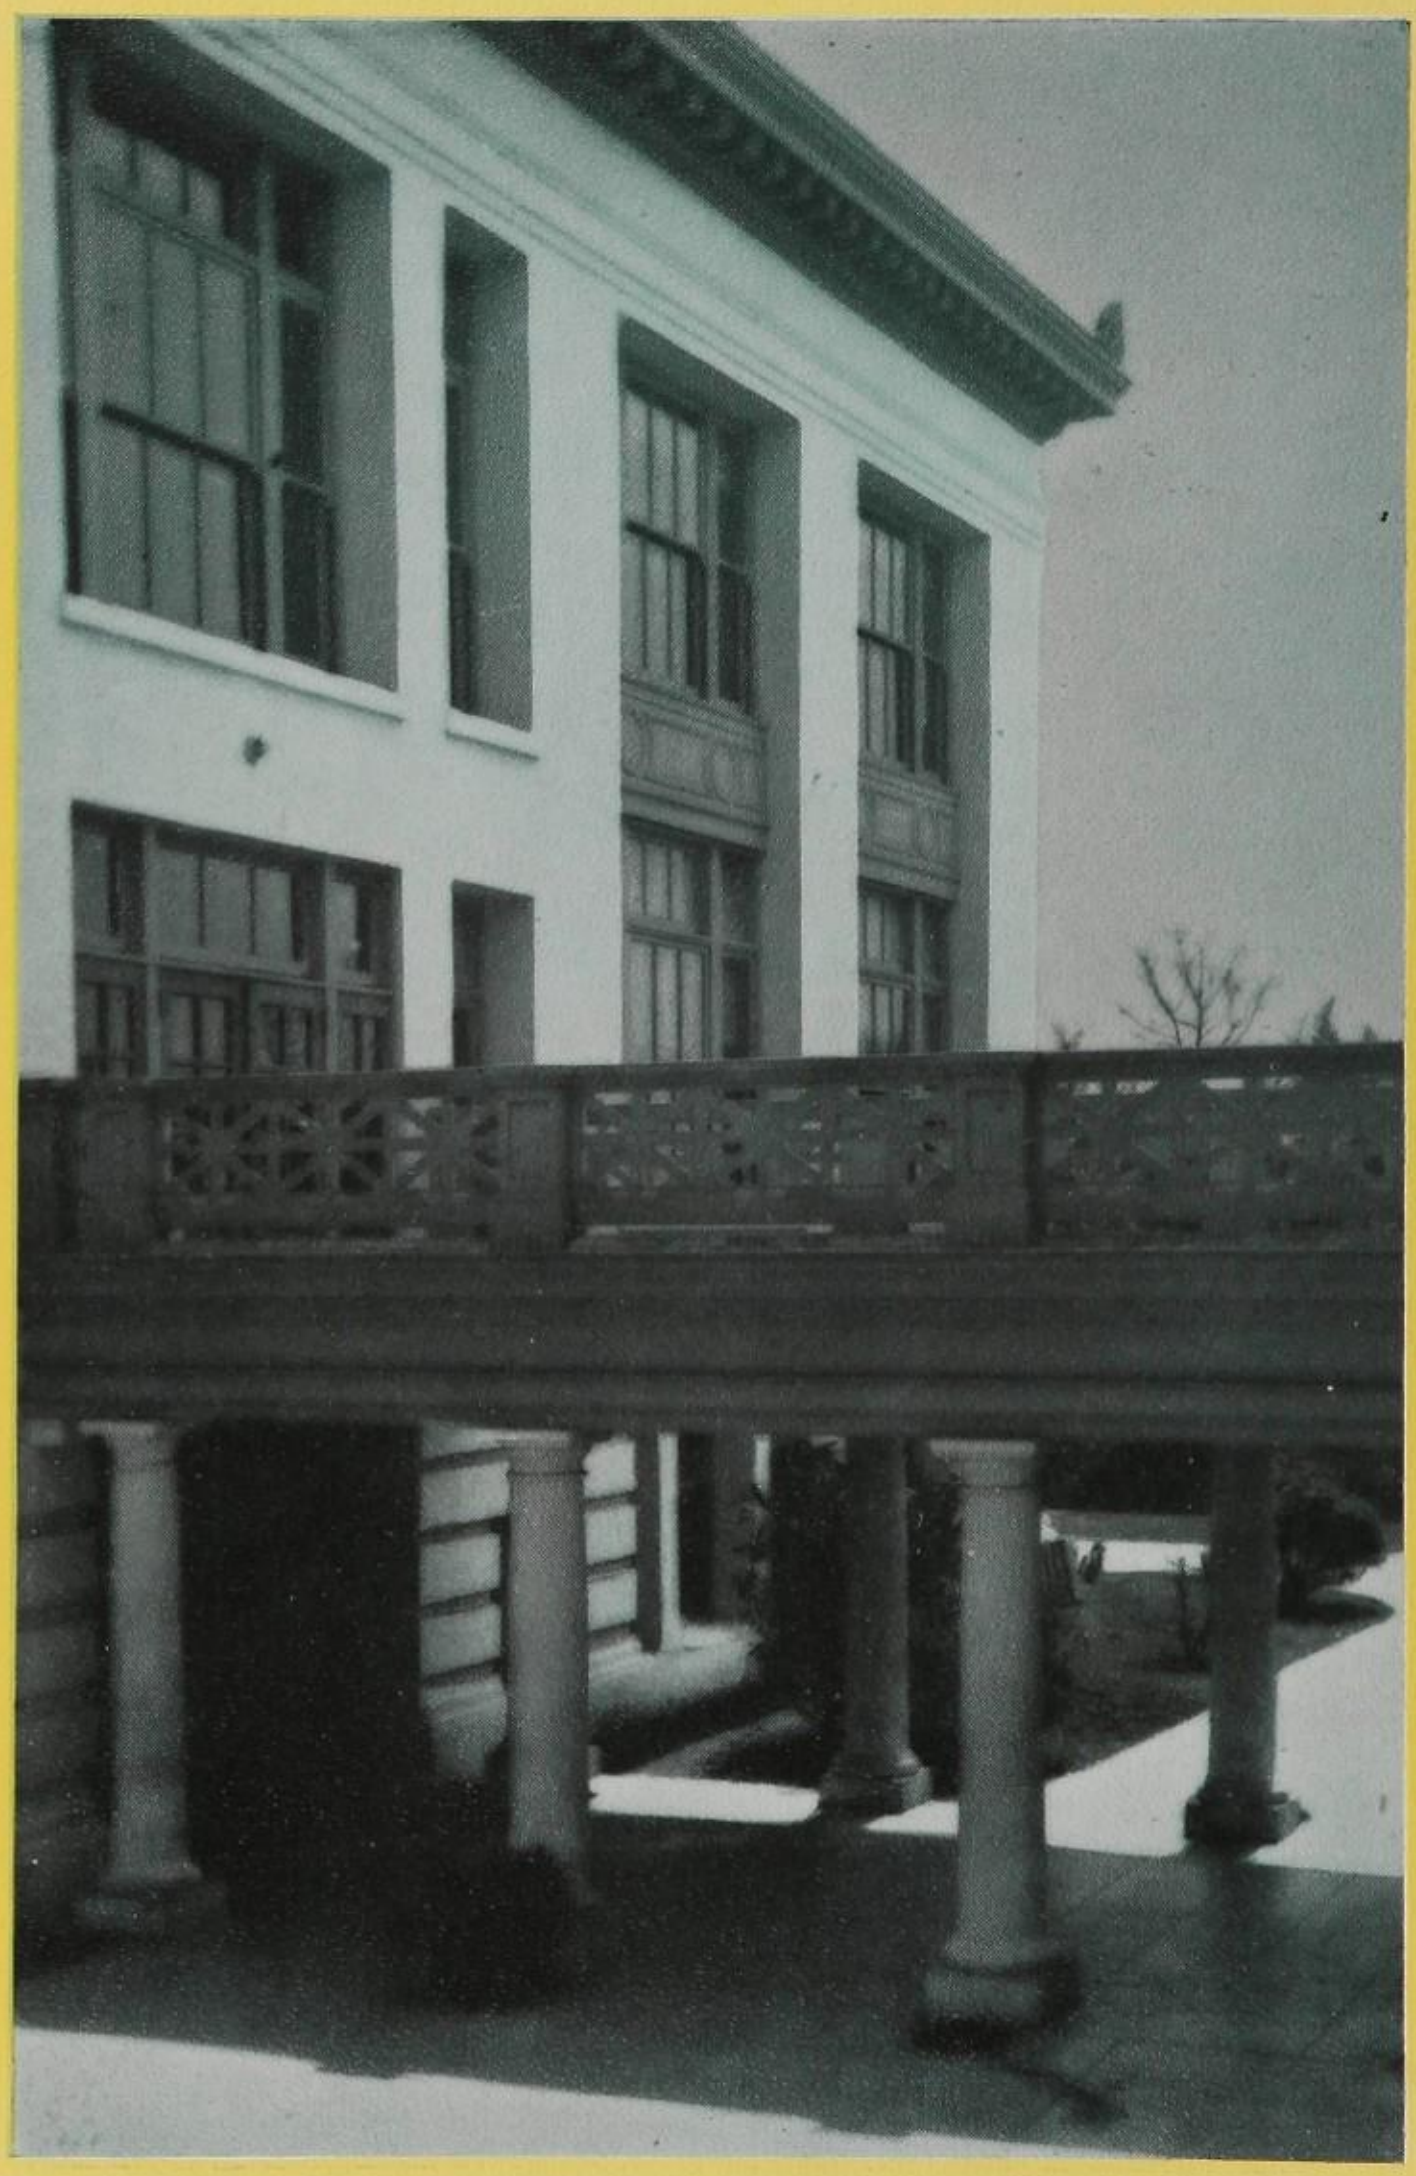
LINCOLN



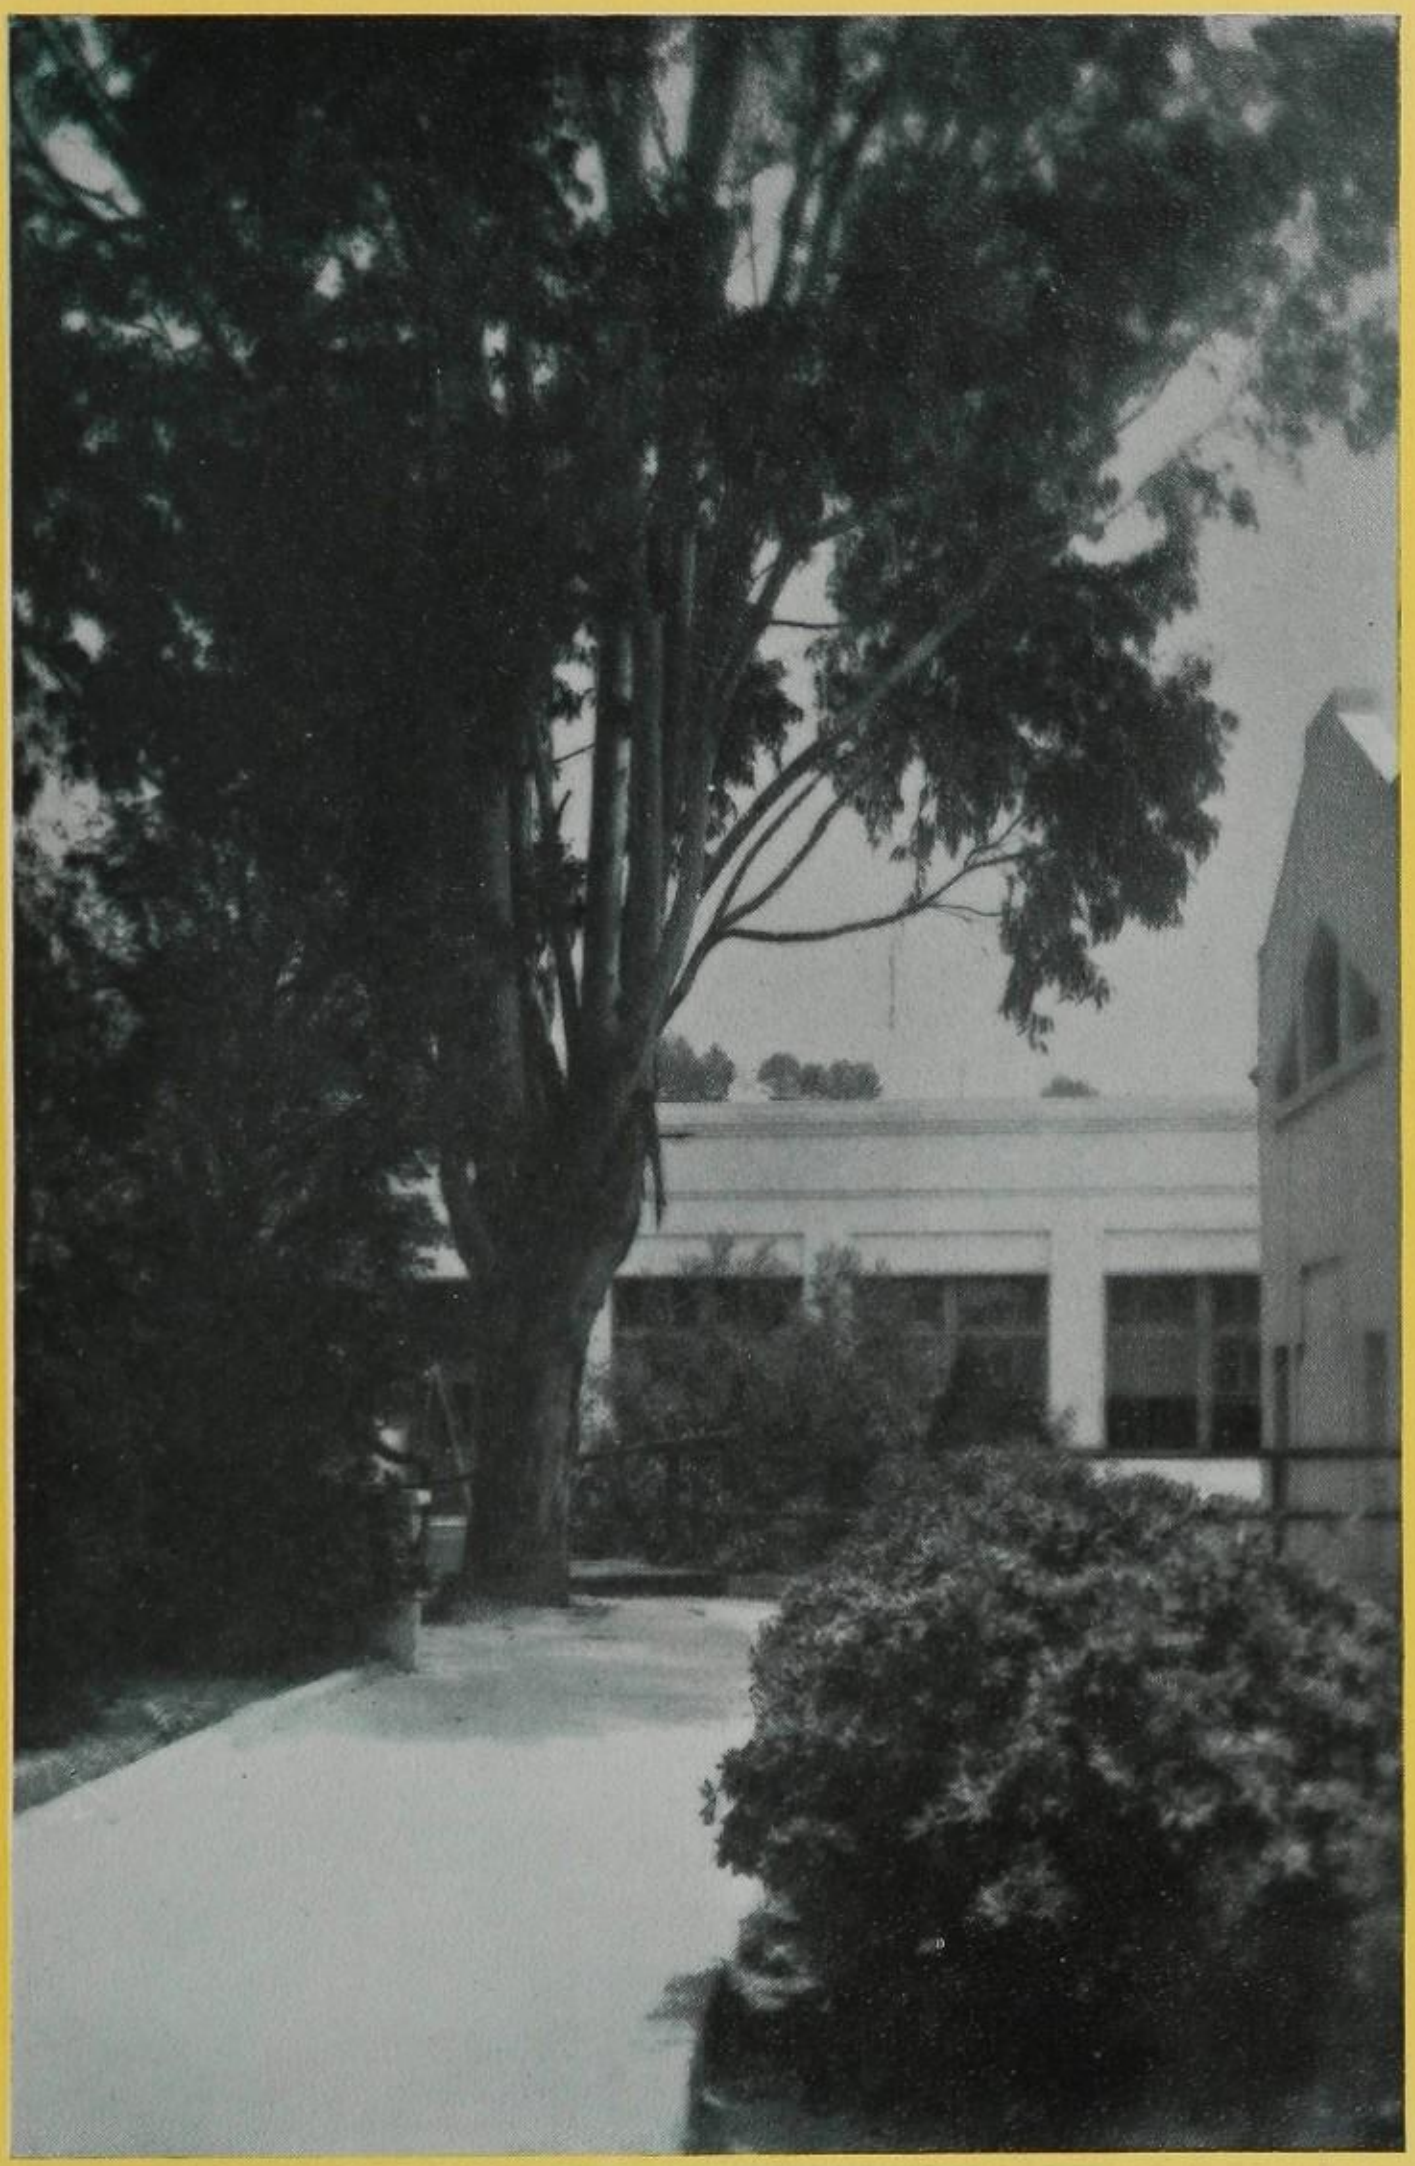
All hail! all hail! to Lincoln hail!
Hail, Alma Mater true,



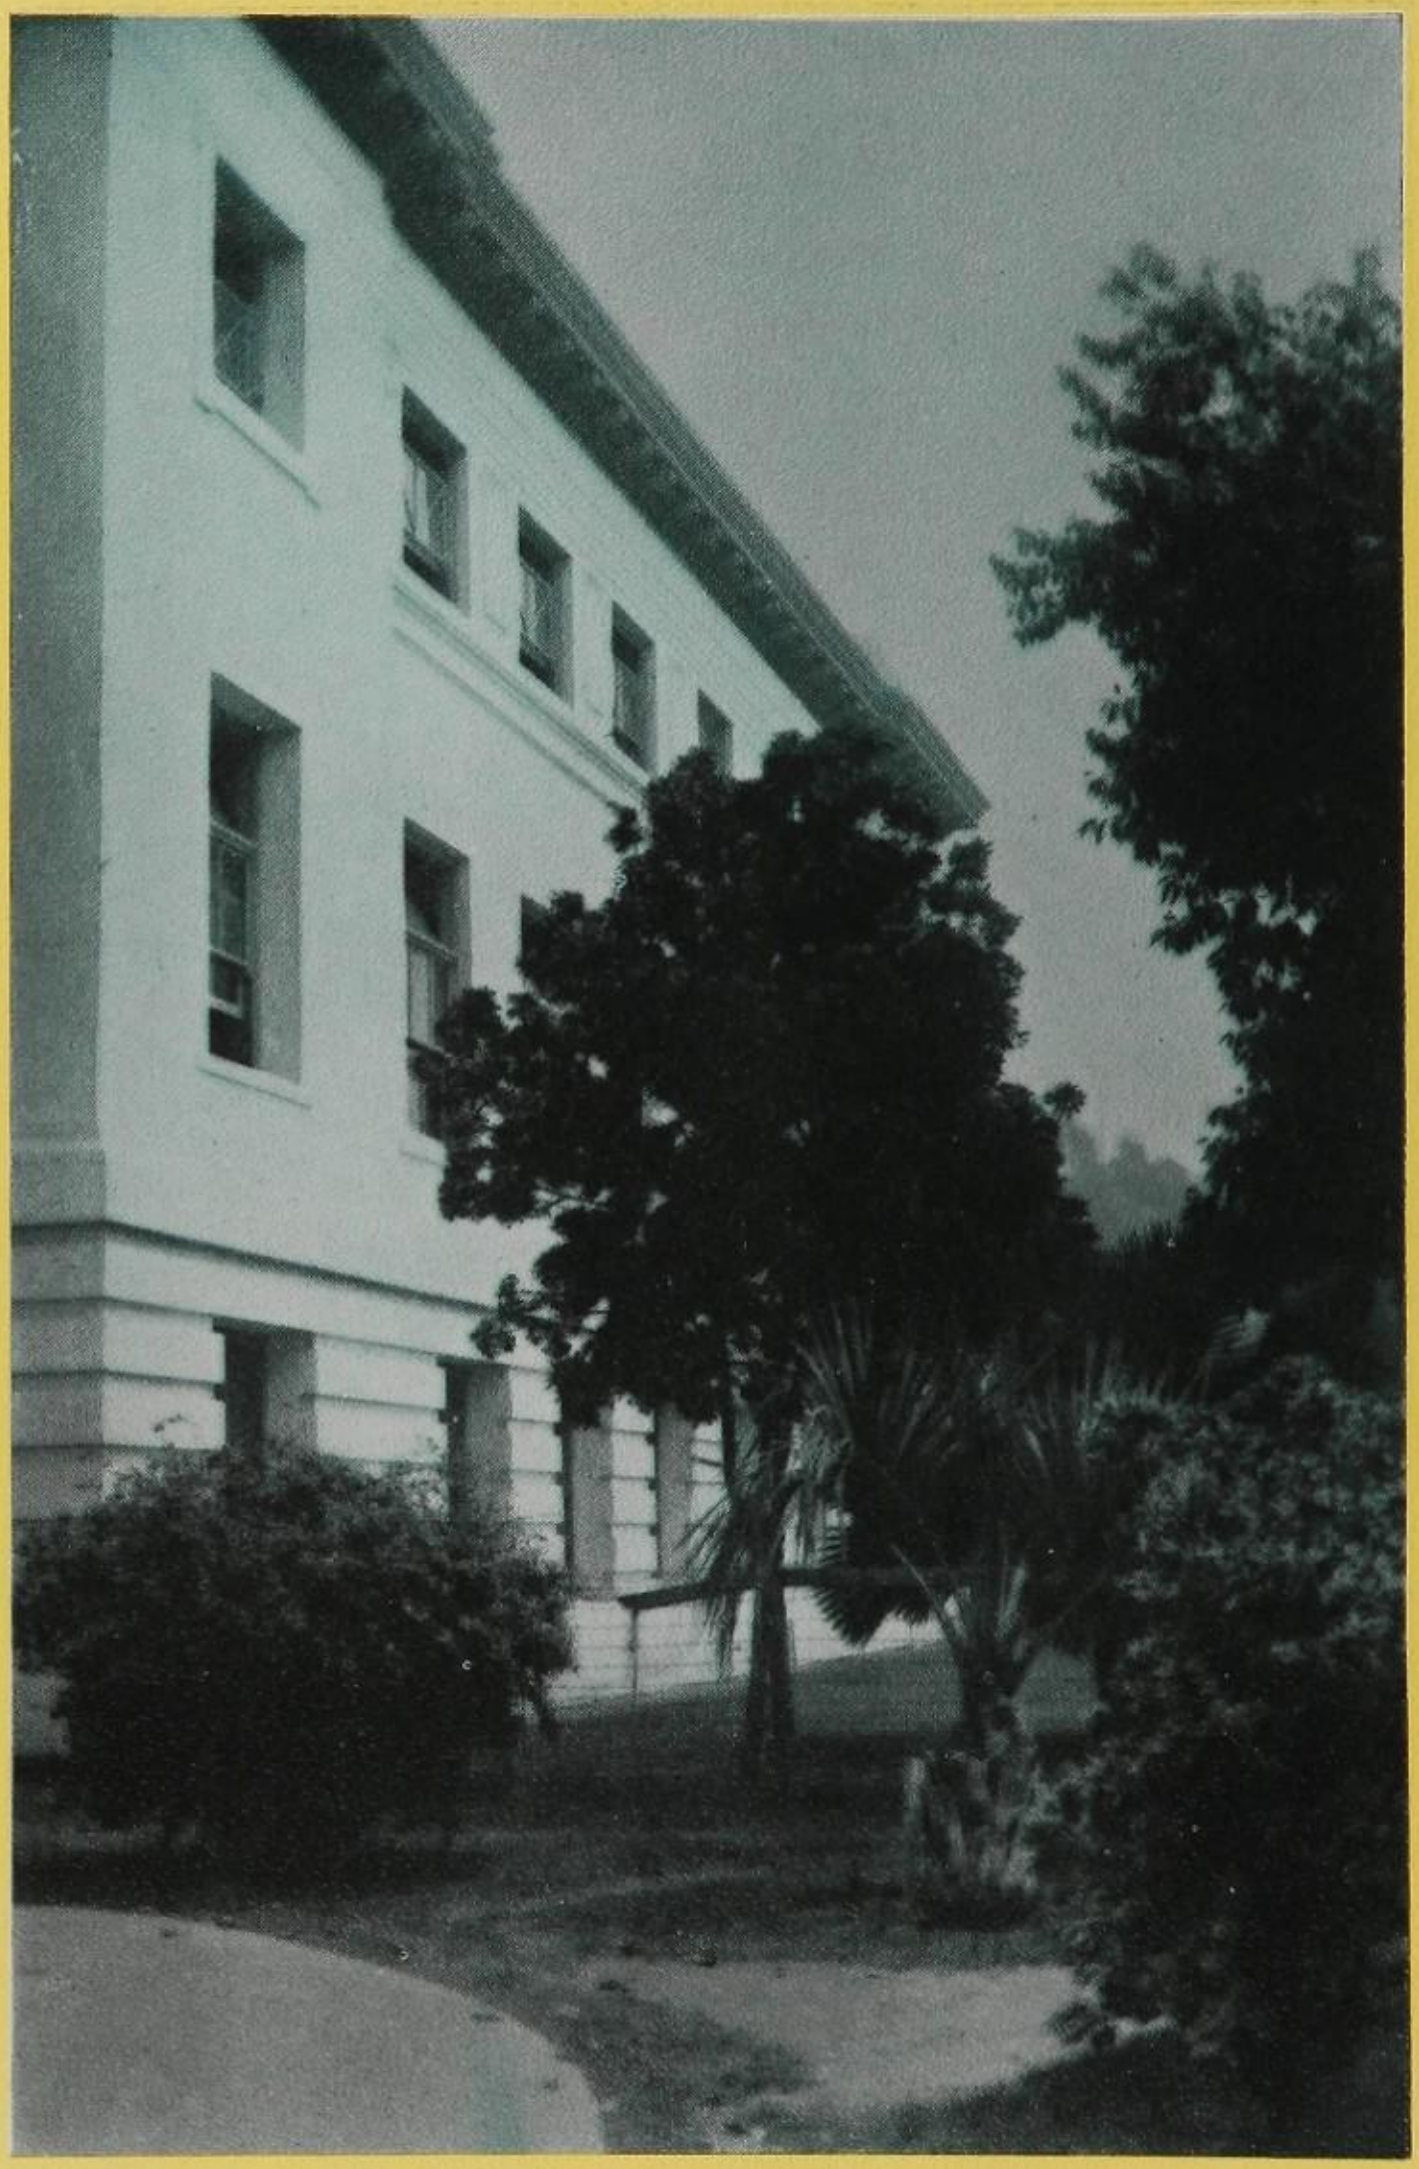
Throned on thy heights that upward reach
To skies of cloudless blue.



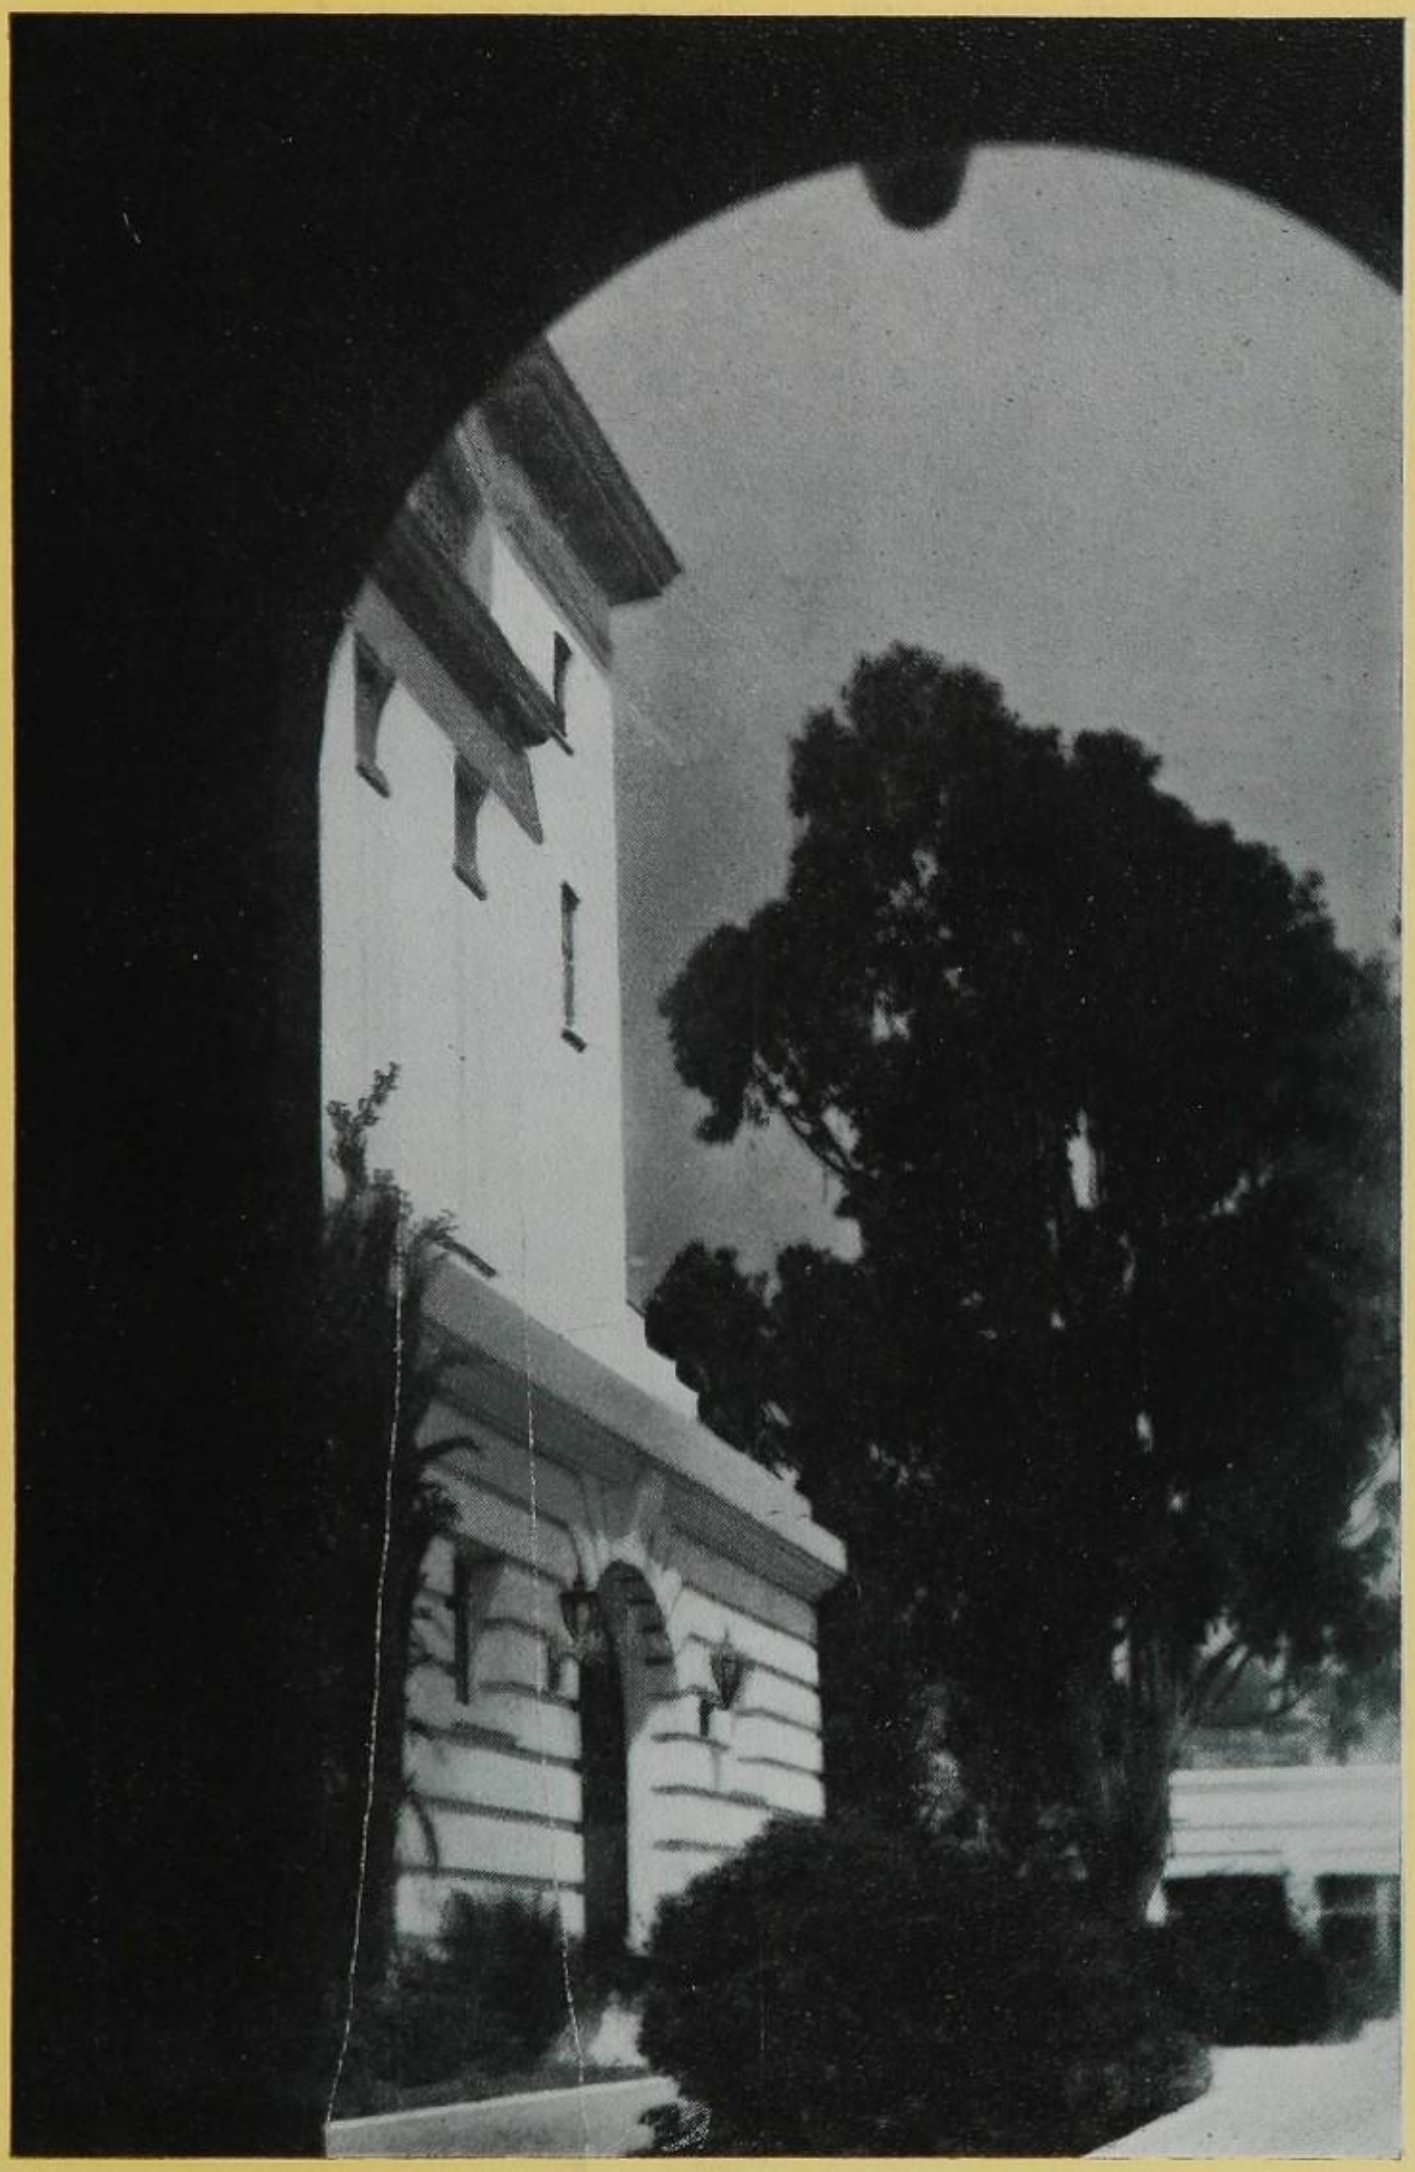
Our hearts beat warm in loyalty,
Our hearts shall never fail;
To thee in praise our song we raise,
All hail to Lincoln, hail!



Hail Alma Mater, Lincoln hail!
Thy loyal sons so bold
Shall count their duty but a joy
Thine honor to uphold.



Untarnished shall thy fair name shine,
No doubts thy fame assail,



Each heart and voice approves our choice,
All hail to Lincoln, hail!

FOREWORD

IF, in the years to come, this 1926 Lincolnian serves to bridge the gap between the present and the past, and brings to mind pleasant memories of four years spent in Lincoln High School; if this Lincolnian will, during those coming years, be the key to an oft-visited vault in the memory, then our expectations will be exceeded and we shall be content.

Winter 1926

THE SENIOR CLASS OF WINTER 1926

The Winter Class of 1926 has completed its high school days and now sails out on the sea of life much better equipped for having gone through this institution. Whether embarking in the business world or continuing their education, the members of this class can never forget the value of the training received at Lincoln. The friendships formed in early days will live throughout their lives and will be the source of fond memories in years to come.

The Seniors of Winter 1926 were prominent in all school activities. They distinguished themselves in various social, scholastic, athletic, dramatic and social events. Many of them fought for their Alma Mater on the athletic field. Russell Striff, All-City quarterback; Sayles Young, star tackle, both famous on the gridiron; Clarence McGilliard, trackman; and Jimmie Katsaros in baseball, all made a name for themselves in Lincoln's Hall of Fame. Others devoted their time to dramatics and music with great success.

Members of the class strove in every possible way to advance Lincoln's standards of scholarship and service, a large number receiving Alpha and service honors.

Several successful parties and dances were given, and a play, "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," was delightfully presented.

A great deal of credit for the success of the class must be given to its officers: Curtis Stofle, President; Catherine Ulrich, Vice-President; Thelma Lallie, Girls' Secretary; and Merrill Johnson, Boys' Secretary.

The Class of Winter 1926 had to leave its Alma Mater, but its members will always be welcome here at Lincoln, and they won't forget to come back home.

Adieu—but not good-bye.

SAM WARNER | MURIEL WALKER | JOHN MCCARRON

EPHEBIANS OF WINTER 1926

Probably the highest and finest honor given a student in high school is the Ephebian ring and the Ephebian seal, both of which are awarded the evening of graduation.

The Ephebian Society is a national organization whose members consist of only the flower of each high school graduating class. In the Lincoln High School Winter Class of 1926, three members were chosen as Ephebians.

Considering the wonderful record established by Sam Warner as Student Body President, his membership to the Society was guaranteed long before he graduated. Sam also held the position of Business Manager of the 1926 Lincolnian, Alpha member, and many other offices, too numerous to mention.

The scholarship record of Muriel Walker could hardly be finer. Muriel and the Alpha Society might well be one and the same. The standards set by both were equally high. Not content with four A's every semester, Muriel obtained A's in practically every one of her studies.

As Editor-in-Chief of the 1925 Lincolnian, John McCarron deserved membership in the Society. John served his Alma Mater conscientiously and faithfully for four years, but his biggest and finest accomplishment was that of Editorship of the Annual. His book was awarded second place in the National Yearbook Contest. An Alpha Society member and a regular fellow, John was well liked and respected by every one.

SENIOR CLASS TEACHERS

The Senior Class teachers are probably the most important members in the graduating class' personnel. With the experience received in instructing past graduating classes, the Class Teachers ably assist the Seniors with the adjustment of their scholarship records, their duty of paying dues, selecting colors and emblems, and planning social activities. The graduating classes of 1926 were indeed fortunate in having as instructors Miss Mae McMillin and Mrs. Horton, each of whom gave much of their time assisting the Seniors to overcome the difficulties which are forever arising to block the path towards graduation.

With Miss McMillin caring for the financial status of the classes, aside from helping the members to choose their colors, emblems, etc., a clear record as regards money matters was assured. Miss McMillin, no matter how busy, always found time to give helpful advice to each member of these classes.

And as for Mrs. Horton, the Seniors certainly kept her busy taking care of their social activities. Without her to plan the lovely after-school parties and evening dances, the Senior A's would have had a difficult time. Mrs. Horton always had a store of surprises and new ideas on hand for the betterment of the Senior social affairs.

Summer 1926

CLASS OF SUMMER 1926

Not content with being one of the largest Senior Classes to graduate from Lincoln High School, the Summer Class of 1926 boasted of having unusual pep and individuality.

Instead of staging the usual class play, the Senior A's decided to do something different and hold a big Carnival Dance in the gymnasium, May 21, which approximately one thousand Lincolnites and friends attended. Dancing until twelve o'clock went on in the boys' gym, while booths, at which "eatable and drinkables" were sold, occupied the new girls' gym.

Something new was instituted this semester in the form of teas given to the Senior A girls by the girl commissioners, thus affording an opportunity for the feminine portion of the class to become better acquainted.

On Sunday, June 20, an inspiring Vesper Service was given by Miss Andrus and members of the Senior A class.

Two varsity football captains graduated with the S'26 class, Milton Nolan and Bill Medanich, while another stellar player who captured an All-City berth was also a member of the class—Evo Pusich.

The class has the honor of claiming the greatest orator in Lincoln's history, Bernard Harrison. Bernard won first place in the Evening Herald Oratorical Contest in Los Angeles, as well as being a strong competitor in the Constitution Contest.

Organization of the S'26 class started at the very beginning of the term, and instead of holding an occasional meeting at noon, the Senior A's met in Senior hall every Wednesday during advisory period, insuring, in this way, one hundred percent attendance and much better presentation in settling class business.

Bell hop hats in the chosen colors, red and white, were donned by the "High and mighties" as their mark of distinction about the fourteenth week of school.

If congratulations for the success of the class are due to any particular members, they should go to its capable officers: Clarence Pagenkopp, President; William Medanich, Vice-President; Marion Peroni, girls' secretary and treasurer and Etheridge Bosworth, boys' secretary and treasurer.

EPHEBIANS OF SUMMER 1926

To choose a number of members from the graduating class of Summer 1926 to represent Lincoln High School in the Ephebian Society was indeed difficult. The Class was one of the largest ever to be graduated from Lincoln, and included an unusual number of fine students.

When one considers the extraordinary service record of Elmore Keyes, it is not at all surprising to find her elected as an Ephebian. Elmore served on the Board of Commissioners not only once but three times—once as Commissioner of Records and twice as Commissioner of Publicity, having been Railsplitter Editor for two terms.

Mildred Mays certainly deserved her election to Ephebian. She not only won recognition through an exceedingly fine service record, but by an enviable scholarship record also. Mildred served on the Board of Commissioners as President of the Girls' League and was also a five-term Alpha.

During his high school career, Jose Limon held many and varied important positions in school activities. However, he probably served his Alma Mater most in matters pertaining to art, for he held the position of Art Editor of the Lincolnian two consecutive years in addition to his art work for the Railsplitter. As regards scholarship, Jose has been a member of the Alpha Society for four terms.

Four years of real honest study, and Archie Schlocker realized his great ambition—Ephebian honors. Many of his precious hours were spent preparing himself in high school to meet the demands of the future. On the eve of graduation he received his reward with the acceptance of his Ephebian ring and seal. All of his time was not spent in study, however, for Archie made a name for himself not only in scholarship but in athletics and dramatics, and in oratory also.

The scholarship record of Franklin Alexander alone was sufficient to give him Ephebian honors on his graduation. For five terms, Franklin was a member of the highest scholarship scoiety in school, the Alpha Society. Quiet and unassuming, Franklin served Lincoln High School in many activities aside from his regular study and preparation.

EPHEBIAN OATH

We will never bring disgrace to this our city by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; we will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city, both alone and with many; we will revere and obey the city's laws and do our best to incite a like respect in those above us who are prone to annul or set them at naught; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public sense of civic duty. Thus, in all these ways, we will transmit this city not only not less, but far greater and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

CLARENCE PAGENKOPP

WILLIAM MEDANICH

ORGANIZATIONS

PRESIDENT SAM WARNER

COMMISSIONERS OF WINTER 1926

Undoubtedly, one of Lincoln High School's finest groups of Commissioners left office with the passing of the Winter term of 1926. Sam Warner, Student Body President, conducted Lincoln through one of the most prosperous and pleasurable terms ever spent. Realizing the tremendous responsibility resting upon his shoulders, Sam tackled his job with earnestness and brought forth wonderful results.

As Commissioner of General Welfare, Clarence McGilliard made a great success of his work, as did Kenneth Rundquist, Commissioner of Records. Maurice Levinson, President of the Boys' Student Government, and Beatrice Wilson, President of the Girls' Student Government, cooperated and succeeded in building up the student government at Lincoln to its highest standard of efficiency.

The two Athletic Commissioners, Elmer Saunders, Boys' Sports, and Frances Michelson, Girls' Sports, passed through a successful semester due to their untiring efforts and capabilities. Alma Bowers, Girls' League President, conducted her organization through a semester of most successful activities, as did Russell Striff, President of the Boys' League. Major Charles McCoy worked incessantly with his battalion, building and perfecting the unit to a high degree.

Lincoln High School's Commissioenrs have always upheld the standards of their school. Each Commisioner of Winter 1926 served to the best of his ability, and Lincoln High School benefited and prospered as she had never benefited and prospered before.

PRESIDENT ELMER SAUNDERS

COMMISSIONERS OF SUMMER 1926

During the term of Summer, 1926, Lincoln High School has made definite progress towards its goal—perfection. A good part of this progress has been due to the untiring efforts of the students occupying its positions of honor and trust.

President Elmer Saunders has given himself body and soul to his school, ever striving to better conditions. The fruits of his labors may be seen on the campus and in the general tone of the Student Body.

Not a little of the improvement has been due to the Board of Commissioners. Kenneth Cummins, Commissioner of General Welfare, and Elmore Keyes, Commissioner of Records, were capable and trustworthy. The efficient handling of tickets was due to the efforts of Bruce Fenton, Ticket Commissioner. The new Commissionership, that of House Manager, was successfully inaugurated by John Giacone. The Commissionership of Boys' Sports was capably filled by Robert Young, while the R. O. T. C. owed its successful term to Major Charles Crozer. The Girls' Student Government and Boys' Student Government passed through a successful semester due to the hard work of Irma Fulton and Gus Searcy, their respective presidents.

The Girls' League gained a firm footing under the leadership of Mildred Mays, while the Boys' League enjoyed similar success under George Cones. Virginia Ogilvie did more than her share in the interest of Girls' Sports, while Mazine Roush, by her conscientious efforts, fully justified herself as Commisioner of Publicity and Editor of the Railsplitter.

ACCOUNTING SOCIETY

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Isadore Sussman	President	Marion Peroni
Nathan Finkel	Vice-President	Ben Finkel
Betty Campbell	Secretary	Ruby Abrams
Marion Peroni	Treasurer	Frances McCumber
	Miss McMillin, Sponsor

The Accounting Society is composed of those students who have completed the course in Bookkeeping III. The purpose of the Society is twofold: to serve Lincoln through its work in the Business Office, and to give its members training which will be of inestimable value to them in their business life after leaving school. This training consists of practice in the details of office work, and in the intricacies of modern bookkeeping methods, emphasizing the importance of the correct balance in the keeping of all books. Besides the training, the Society helps its members to secure positions with reliable firms.

The club has always been a live organization and this year's group has been no exception. It has proved itself a valuable asset to the school. The social activities of the club this year included two successful parties and an excursion.

ALPHA SOCIETY

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Harris Robinson	President	Minnie Cockcroft
Isadore Dubrinsky	Vice-President	Harold Ryan
Minnie Cockroft	Secretary	Martha Verna
Ruth Edmondson	Treasurer	Winifred Eastman

The Alpha Society is the scholarship society of Lincoln. Until this year, the requirements for entrance into the Society were A's in four solids, but due to the adoption of A's in three solids and a B in the remaining solid by the State Scholarship Federation as their established standard, the standard of our Society was lowered. However, students who obtain A's in four solids are considered to be in the upper class of the Alpha Society.

The outstanding features of the winter term were a party for the near Alphas, and the California Scholarship Federation Convention at Santa Barbara, to which Lincoln sent five delegates. The party for the near Alphas was given to encourage those students who had almost secured high enough grades to join the Society. This was the first time such a gathering had ever been held, and it proved very successful.

ATHENIAN SOCIETY

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Arturo Guterriez	President	Leo Frank
Ernest Poggione	Secretary and Treasurer	Loretta Duncan

The only art club at Lincoln High School is the Athenian Society. The membership is limited to those who have obtained sufficient merit to prove themselves in earnest in their efforts, and who would become assets rather than liabilities to the Society.

The Athenians are always serving their Alma Mater by making posters, signs, and beautifying the campus. These students are always in great demand, and besides serving their school constantly, they do it willingly.

During the summer term, the Society formed into a regular class, meeting one period each day. This plan proved such a success that it will be continued in the future.

A futuristic pantomime, The Afterthot, was very successfully and cleverly presented by the Athenians. The pantomime was written by the Society's sponsor, Mr. Currier.

Aside from studying art and serving Lincoln, the Athenian Society has enjoyed many interesting sketching trips, and a series of successful parties were given during the year.

BOOKSTORE

Winter 1926
Arturo Gutierrez

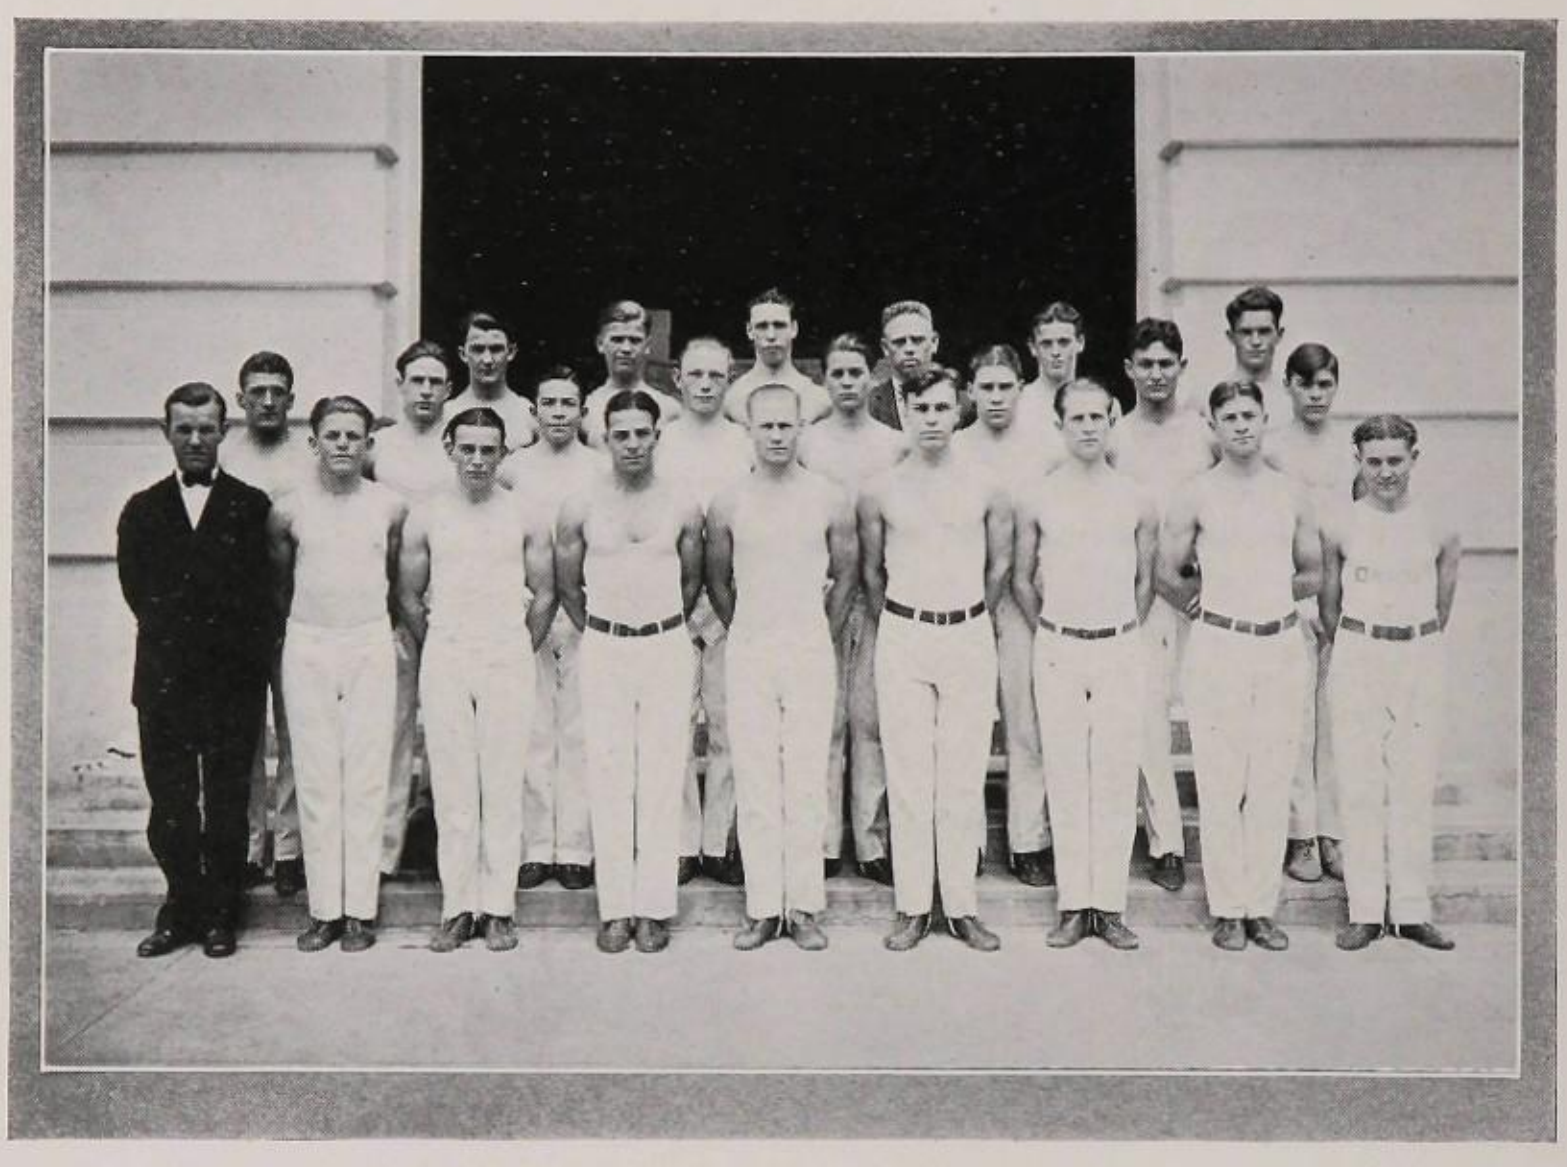
Manager

Summer 1926
Rudolf Parizek

Another group at Lincoln whose motto is "Service" is the the group of students who work in the Bookstore. Their job is the buying and selling of supplies for the school. Students from the salesmanship classes are eligible to this work in the Bookstore, and for it they receive service credits.

Probably no other type of service offers such attractive and practical benefits as does the service in the school Bookstore. Students who work here not only gain experience in buying materials, as the store supplies all accessories necessary to school needs, but they also learn the art of sell-in, that subtle psychology so necessary to success in any line of work in our present age.

Mrs. Ramsey, who is in charge of this work, has instructed her young proteges in all the procedure of modern business methods, though on a small scale. Inventory of stock is taken at stated intervals; buying orders are made out correctly and kept on file, and stock is sorted and arranged attractively for display. Besides this, students get practical experience in all the intricacies of modern bookkeeping, particular emphasis being put on the necessity of all books balancing perfectly at the end of every month.



BOYS' GYM CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
David Swaim	President	Joseph Clausman
Pat Hogan	Vice-President	Robert Lawrence
Joseph Clausman	Secretary	Adelbert Foster
Wilfred Homes	Captain
Willard Winstead	Treasurer	Theodore Hollenbeck

The Boys' Gym Club was organized last year from one of the regular gym classes. Since then, all gym classes have furnished material for this Club.

During the year Lincoln's Gym Club meets the Gym Clubs of other high schools in gymnastic contests when each boy competes in different events such as rope climbing, ring work, tumbling, and the bars.

Many members of the Club enter into other athletic activities such as basket ball, football, track, etc., thus giving the Club representation in each of the major sports.

Work in the Gym Club is one of the best means of building up body and mind and training them to coordinate perfectly. A great deal of training is necessary to become perfect in the different types of activities that the Club includes in its program, for the work brings into play many muscles which rarely receive exercise.

A strong feeling of sportsmanship exists among the members of the Club, and this feeling is fostered and encouraged by Mr. Livernash, the coach.

BOYS' STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Maurice Levinson	President	Gus Searcy
Gus Searcy	Vice-President	Ira Rohland
Ernest Poggione	Secretary	Joel Lissitz
	Sergeant-at-Arms	Alonzo Little

The Boys' Student Government has had one of the most successful years of its history during this past term. It has perfected Student Government to a high degree and has given everyone a cleaner idea of just what Student Government should mean.

During the past year, the Boys' Student Government has been organized into groups, each of which has been assigned special duties. A boy has been appointed as head of each group and in this way results have been checked more easily than when responsibility was placed upon a greater number of individuals.

Keeping order in the halls, libraries and study halls; keeping the campus clean; and seeing that no one left the grounds without a permit, have been some of the duties of the various groups.

The social activities of the year included a picnic given during the winter term and two afternoon parties given during the summer term. Besides these afternoon affairs, a week-end trip was taken by the boys to Lake Arrowhead during the summer term.

BUSINESS OFFICE

Just as the office of the treasurer of a great corporation handles the business of the corporation, so the business office of the school handles all the money and all of the business transactions of that organization. The ticket sellers operate through this office in checking ticket accounts; the Railsplitter and annual business, the cafeteria and bookstore proceeds, the club dues, pin and assesments and all bills rendered to the school are taken care of here. Senior A class announcements, cards, hats, pins, and dues are ordered through this office.

For this work a large crew of student assistants is necessary, but before one can work in the business office he must have had a year of commercial work and must be planning to specialize in either bookkeeping or typing after graduation. For this work a solid upper grade credit is given for two periods a day.

In this office there are students working during every period of the day as well as a group that works far into the afternoon typing, keeping accounts, counting money, handling club finances and other business matters.

In the capable hands of Miss McMillin, treasurer of the school as well as head of the commercial department, the business office is a most efficient organization. Mr. Lawler, a new commercial teacher this term, assists in the office by handling the Railsplitter's financial affairs and helping the ticket commissioner in his work.

CAFETERIA FORCE

One of the most useless of all statements would be one regarding the purpose of the Cafeteria force. Probably no organization at Lincoln has closer and more consistent contact with the student body as a whole than the force which feeds the inner man. The best posible testimonial of its efficiency is the speed with which the students are served, and the general satisfaction of its patrons.

The force consists of students who work in the school cafeteria and the numerous hash lines under the general supervision of Miss Honorine La Gier. These students, in addition to receiving their lunches free of charge, are paid for their services, a consideration which they most assuredly deserve. Their remuneration, however, is not entirely pecuniary. The experience gained in dealing with the public is invaluable. This experience is shared by all, but especially by those students who serve in the capacity of cashiers. In addition to all this, the work is light and easy, a fact which, combined with the other advantages, has induced many a student to forsake other school activities for cafeteria work.

Not to be overlooked is the responsibility which rests upon the cafeteria force. Come what may, the students demand their hash and, come what may, the force must serve them. This means a foregoing of aud calls, which in itself is a great sacrifice. Their glory is not often sung but, nevertheless, the glory is theirs.

CHESS AND CHECKER CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Joel Lissitz	President	Harvey Taylor
Archie Silverman	Vice-President	Bruce Rule
Morgan Trammel	Secretary	Joseph Conklin
Nathan Nelson	Treasurer	Dick Lewis
	Sergeant-at-Arms	Sal Baldimente

The Chess and Checker Club has been organized for six terms, and has had a number of interesting tournaments during that time. Two of these tournaments were held during the past year, and were considered most successful. Three medals were awarded the winners by the faculty. Our chess and checker teams are considered among the best in the city and they have made very fine showings in their matches during both the winter and summer terms.

The club is composed of boys who wish to exercise their brains as well as their bodies, the games of chess and checkers giving them ample opportunity for such exercise.

Mr. MacFarlane was elected as joint sponsor with Mr. Rogers, both of whom have enjoyed being in the club as much as the club has enjoyed having them.

The boys are rapidly becoming very skillful at both games, and many exciting contests between club members have been held.

CITHARA CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Ethel Mathews	President	Virginia Doyle
Frances Edgar	Vice-President	Louis Jacobs
Jamse Fulipello	Sercetary-Treasurer	Mildred Mays
Alice Judah	Program Chairman	Leona Reynolds

The Cithara Club is a musical organization to which any student who is interested in music, and has musical ability, may belong.

Previous to the winter term, membership in the Club was restricted to Harmony students, but upon recommendation of Miss Nash and the entire club, the requirements were altered so as to give more students an opportunity to join the club.

The Cithara Club, besides presenting many lovely afternoon musicales, put on an original program at an aud call. This program was entirely the work of the students, and many of the composers presented their own numbers. Real talent was displayed. Lincoln may well be proud of the Cithara Club and its achievements.

During the year, the members of the Club enjoyed several parties which were made still more enjoyable by the clever programs which were arranged for them.

ETIQUETTE CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Lillian Isgur	President	Eva Blockman
Eva Blockman	Vice-President	Fannie Schneiderman
Nesta Dunn	Secretary	Lillian Isgur
Fannie Schneiderman	Treasurer	Leona Perlman
Ruth Leslie	Sergeant-at-Arms	Helen Natapoff

The Etiquette Club was organized several terms ago and has been one of Lincoln's peppiest clubs ever since. Last term there were over one hundred members which proves the popularity of this organization.

Anyone who is interested in learning that delicate art of saying and doing and wearing the proper thing at the proper time may belong to this club.

The purpose of the club is to discuss in its meetings all phases of etiquette; to try to practice what it preaches, and to help other students in the school to do things in the proper manner. This last is done not only by verbal suggestions but at different times in the past has been accomplished by suggestive posters placed about the halls, attractively displaying the correct and incorrect methods of doing this and that.

Besides two terms of most profitable weekly meetings, the club enjoyed many social activities during the year, not the least important of which was a happy picnic in Elysian Park.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Alma Bowers	President	Mildred Mays
Josephine Sherquist	Vice-President	Pearl Grigg
	Correspondence Secretary	Evelyn Weisel
Pearl Grigg	Recording Secretary	Georgia Dunlop
Murlin Johnson	Treasurer	Mary Guenthard

The past year has been a busy and successful one for the Girls' League.

The winter term cabinet worked long and hard on the Christmas work, helping many needy families and little children at that time. Toys of all descriptions were made for various nurseries and hospitals, and baskets of food and clothing were distributed. In short, the League carried out an extensive philanthropic program.

The summer term's social events consisted of afternoon parties for all the grades in school, and afternoon teas for various groups. These affairs were all well attended, as the Girls' League Cabinet spent much time in making them as interesting as possible.

During the year, the Girls' League tried to uphold its purpose of sponsoring the social and philanthropic work of the school to the best of its ability.

GIRLS' STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Beatrice Wilson	President	Irma Fulton
Irma Fulton	Vice-President	Thelma Moore
Dorothy Hindman	Secretary	Florence Ramor
Della Raggio	Treasurer	Clarice Atwood
	Chairman of Hall Duty	Della Raggio

Among the first organizations formed at Lincoln was the Girls' Student Government, the members of which maintain order in the halls, study halls, library, and at aud calls.

Among the many things done this term, the organization put into effect a new system of keeping order in the aud and inaugurated the Student Court, composed of the Board of Commissioners, which was most successful in its task of keeping discipline in the school.

During the term of Summer 1926 the Girls' Student Government had two hundred and thirty-four members, the largest enrollment in the history of the organization. The fact that one hundred and sixty-three members were on hall duty accounts for the splendid order in the halls throughout the term.

The girls combined with the Boys' Student Government in participating in two social events, a picnic in Elysian Park and a party in the Gym.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Helen French	President	Evelyn Weisel
Margaret Patliassitti	Vice-President	Lois Crawford
Daphne Sassoe	Secretary	Opal Hall
	Treasurer	Florence White

The chief requisite for membership in the Home Economics Club is a willingness to work, a statement which may be verified by a brief review of the accomplishments of the club during the past year.

Besides helping in many other ways to make the Alumni Opera a success, the girls of this club did much work on the costumes, and again they displayed their skill along this line when they assisted in the preparations for the school opera. Beside this work in school, the club did a great deal of philanthropic work at the County Hospital, among other things making clothes for the occupants of one of the children's wards.

The members of the Home Economics Club held meetings after school, at which they combined work and pleasure (in the form of refreshments), in this way spending many an enjoyable and profitable afternoon.

The training received by members of this club will be of great value to them in after years, a fact which many of the girls recognize and treat as an opportunity not to be missed.

SENIOR HI-Y

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Paul Dulin	President	Stanley Cooper
Claybourne Reynolds	Vice-President	Edward Veady
James Van Osten	Secretary	John Marvin
John Mott	Treasurer	Richard Marvin
Arthur Bode	Sergeant-at-Arms	George Wimberly

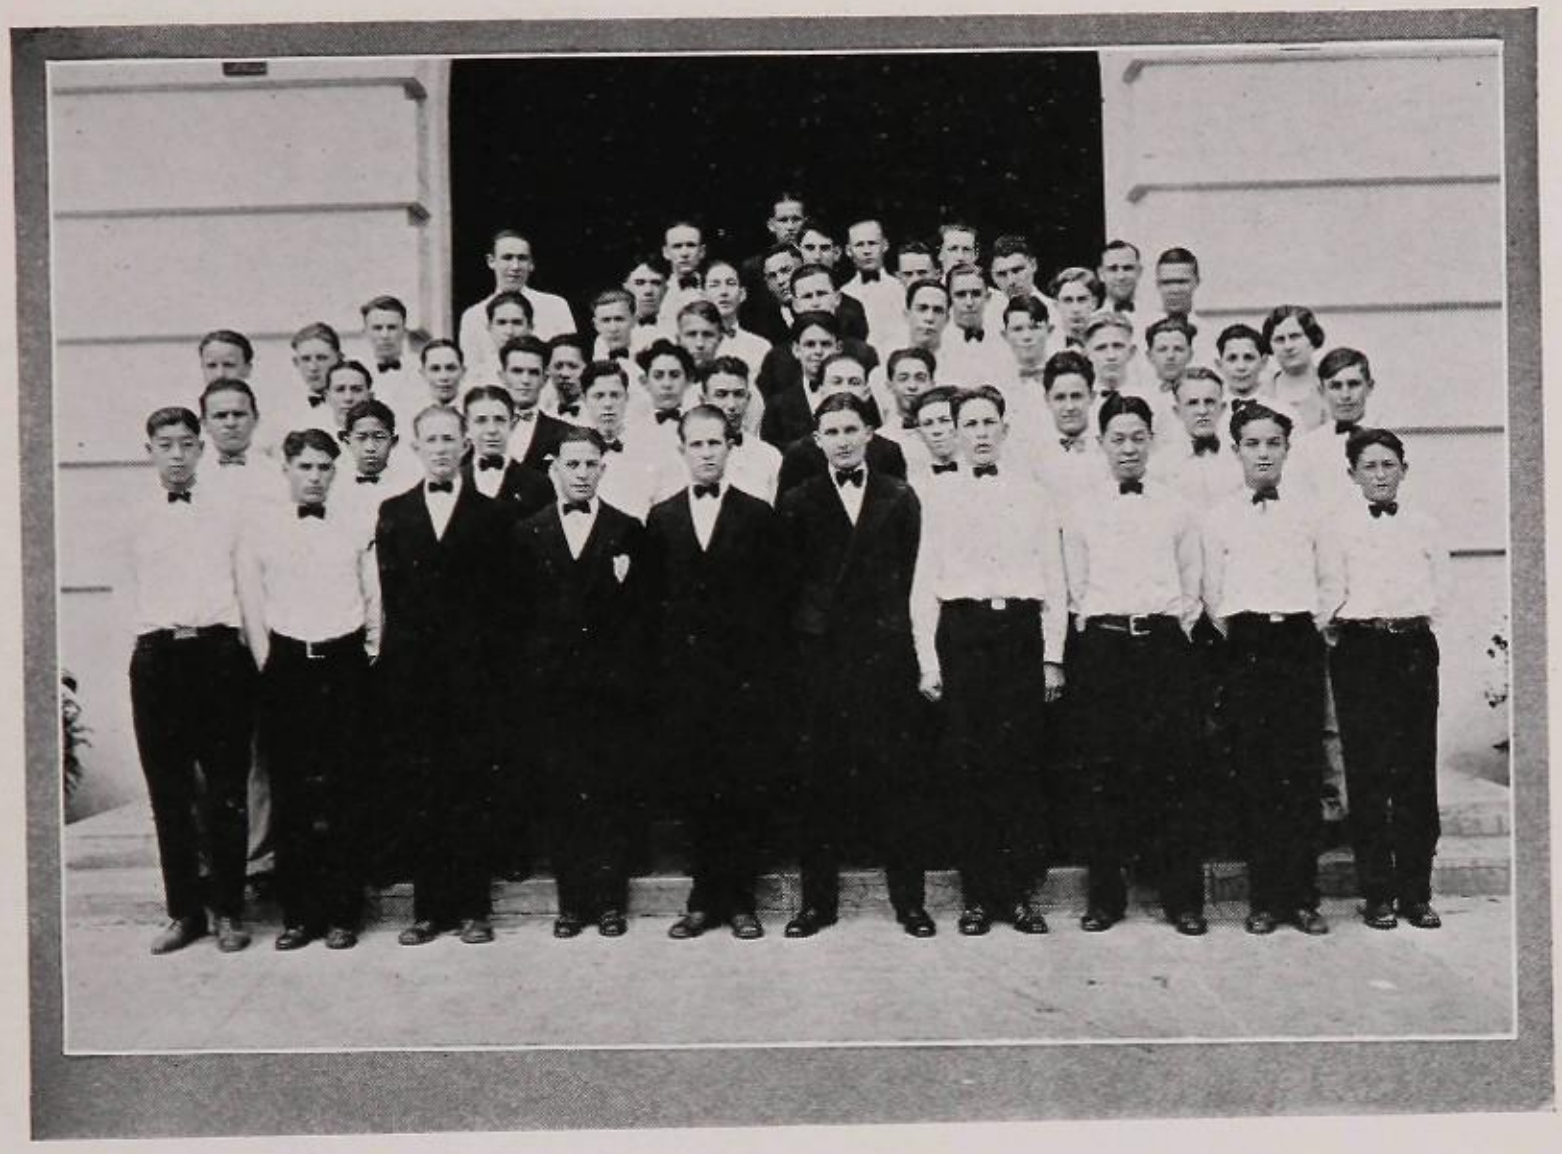
The Senior Hi-Y is a composite organization, the membership of which is drawn from the upper classmen of the various city high schools. This composite club meets every Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A.

The purpose of the organization is clearly stated in its motto: "To create and maintain throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character."

The Lincoln Hi-Y has been one of the most active service clubs in the school. Perhaps its greatest acts of service this year have been those of sponsoring the gift of a Radio set, donated by the combined Hi-Y to the boys of the Strickland Home, and furnishing these boys with various kinds of entertainment throughout the year.

The Lincoln club also furnished its share of foodstuffs for the Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets.

In representing Lincoln, the club very ably upheld the honor of the school, its baseball team having passed through the season undefeated, thus winning the inter-club championship. Further honors came to Lincoln when James Van Osten was appointed editor-in-chief of the United Hi-Y News. Lincoln may well be proud of her Senior Hi-Y.



JOLLY WARBLERS

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Dick Lewis	President	Joseph Bosio
Joseph Rosso	Vice-President	Edward Shaw
James Liles	Secretary	William Conklin
Joseph Hollowed	Treasurer	Paul Caldwell
George Murray	Librarian	Leonard Scherquist
Arthur Lovewell	Assistant Librarian	Joseph Clausman

Courtesy, co-operation and willingness to work are the fundamental principles upon which the organization of the Jolly Warblers is built. Under the capable direction and leadership of Miss Mitchell, these boys have developed a fine musical club which has served Lincoln during the past year upon various occasions, two of which are especially noteworthy. During the term of Winter '26, the club staged a rally for the Lincoln-Poly game which was surpassed only by the game itself. The second noteworthy performance was on the occasion of the Boys' Program given during the latter part of the summer term.

In regard to amusements, the Jolly Warblers, like every other peppy boys' club, enjoy a good time. When they are on an outing they are all their name implies. During the past term they have participated in a hike and a beach trip, both of which were highly successful.

JUNIOR BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
	President	Raymond Saito
	Vice-President	James Goodhue
	Secretary	Christie Gwenn
	Treasurer	Manuel Perrou
	Librarian	Marco Portesi
	Accompanist	Leona Reynolds

Under the leadership of Mrs. Howeth, a group of ninth grade boys organized a Junior Boys' Glee Club during the summer term, making its first public appearance on the program of the Boys' Aud Call held during Boys' Week. On this occasion the club was introduced and proved that it is a good idea to start training early.

The primary purpose of this organization is to prepare the boys for the Senior Glee Club, the special requirements for which are that the members must be able to read music well, and to do part singing.

Heretofore, the ninth grade boys had been left out of all the Glee Clubs, their only training in chorus work being in their gym choruses. Now that they have come into an organization of their own it is expected that when these boys become seniors, their early training in the Junior Boys' Glee Club will be felt strongly.

A number of the members were chosen to be choir boys in the opera, "Briar Rose," which work they did exceedingly well.

JUNIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

President	Marion Brillinger
Secretary and Treasurer	Lucille Branch
Librarian	Lucille Cole

The work of this club is delightfully varied. First and foremost the group makes a business of knowing all school songs; it then strives for much practice in unison singing, both two-part and three-part, making its object more the singing of many songs, six to eight each time, than intensive training in a few. To sing for the joy of singing is the spirit of their work.

The Junior Girls' Glee Club, which is unique in being one of the few clubs to which only underclassmen may belong, is composed of those B9 and A9 girls who have some vocal ability and a desire to belong eventually to the Senior Girls' Glee Club. It was organized during the term of S'26.

Just as the aim of the Madrigal Club is to prepare girls for membership in the Senior Girls' Glee Club, so the aim of the Junior Girls' Glee Club is to prepare these Freshmen for membership in the Madrigals and finally the Senior organization.

Receiving much praise for their earnest efforts, the girls made their first public appearance at the All Girls' Aud Call held on May 20th.

With Mrs. Miller as sponsor, the Junior Girls' Glee Club expects to accomplish many things next year.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Lester Percy Adams	President	Lester Percy Adams
Clifford Tallman	Vice-President	Millie Goldberg
Anna Karvonen	Secretary and Treasurer	Alice Yandell
Jorma Kaukonen	Librarian	Jorma Kaukonen

The purpose of the Junior Orchestra is to prepare students for the Senior Orchestra by giving them training in that most essential feature of orchestral playing, working together. It furnishes a means for those students who have musical ability to practice and enjoy playing orchestral numbers under the proper instruction.

The group is under the directorship of Mr. Potter, and has accomplished such fine work that it promises to be one of the best musical organizations at Lincoln.

Its members work hard, but when they have social affairs they are able to forget their labors and have jolly good times. Several of these social affairs have been held during the past year and all were decidedly successful.

LIBRARY CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Thelma Moore	President	Mary Reed
Zelma Stuber	Vice-President	Ida May Lewis
Suzette Ballow	Secretary and Treasurer	Mari Mitani

The Library Club, which consists of girls who have had training under Miss Morgan and Miss Folger, Librarians, considers its chief purpose the protection of the library books of the school.

Besides distinguishing itself in this work connected with the library, the club carried on activities of a philanthropic nature of which it may well be proud. At Thanksgiving time its members filled and distributed nine lovely baskets of goodies to needy families and before Christmas they worked strenuously making scrap books for the children in the County Hospital.

The year of course would not have been complete without some play, in the form of several delightful parties, considering all of which the club spent a most happy and profitable two terms.

LINCOLN SCIENCE CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Mae Soloman	President	Thomas Palmer
George Smith	Vice-President	Balma White
Balma White	Secretary	Barnetta Baum
Fred Angel	Treasurer	Fred Angel
Doris Richardson	Sergeant-at-Arms	Clara Stieret

The Lincoln Science Club is an organization consisting of those students who are interested in science in general rather than one particular branch of it. As this field is very large and varied, the activities of the Club are interesting to all.

The events during the winter semester consisted mainly of trips to points of interest, hikes, parties, a Rose Show, and a Wildflower Show. Thus it can be seen that the Science Club had enough to keep it busy.

The summer term proved equally pleasurable, as hikes, parties and flower shows again held a prominent position on the club's program of activities. The Rose Show was considered a huge success by faculty and student body alike. Many important speakers have been engaged by the Club to speak at some of their meetings on scientific topics. The Lincoln Science Club is one of the largest organizations in Lincoln High School.

L SOCIETY

Alumni		Active
Tony Parra	President	Gus Searcy
George Dyer	Vice-President	Jimmy Roselli
Junior Drake	Secretary	Kenneth Cummins

Although the L Society is an organization composed of boys who have earned letters in major athletics, the earning of a letter alone does not admit a boy to the society. In order to become a member he must meet several other qualifications and must be approved by the members of the organization.

The L Society is divided into two groups, the alumni and the active members of Lincoln. These two groups meet once a year at a banquet, at which time new members are admitted.

The purpose of the organization is to promote cleaner sports and to sponsor improvements about the school.

The L Society put on an athletic aud call on June 17th which was one of the most ambitious undertakings ever tried by any club at Lincoln. The baseball, track, and tennis men were awarded letters, and in addition several famous sportsmen spoke. These included George Blake, manager of Fidel La Barba, and Dewitt Van Court of the L. A. A. C.

THE OFFICES

Many students enjoy serving Lincoln through work in the Attendance Office and Outer Office, both of which jobs are popular and interesting, and give the students practical and valuable training. To become an assistant in this work one must have proven himself efficient and reliable.

The offices are a means of combining profit with pleasure—profit from the training offered, and pleasure through association with a lively group of Lincolnites who wish to serve their school.

The students in the Outer Office are ably supervised by Miss Marion Burbach, Secretary. In this office much experience is gained attending to the switchboard.

The assistants in the Attendance Office work under the direction of Miss Laura Bridge, Registrar of the school. Here they are engaged in checking upon the attendance records of the students.

These office assistants rarely have time for social activities, as their hours are long and they are usually too busy. However a cheery companionship exists among the students in the offices which makes this form of service their pleasure as well as their work.

PLAYCRAFTERS

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
David Swaim	President	Budd Arthur
Elsie Stadelman	Vice-President	Georgia Tewalt
Betty Henderson	Secretary	Betty Henderson
Isadore Sussman	Treasurer	Mart Walt
Thelma Lallie	Librarian	Margaret Miller
Budd Arthur	Manager	Tommy King
	Assistant Director	Luella Dickey

The Playcrafters is one of the liveliest groups of students in the school, and one of the hardest working groups, for indeed it is difficult to present plays and dramas such as the Playcrafters give. Members of this club receive upper grade English credit.

In order to become a member, one must not only pass an examination given by the director, Mrs. Gray, but must also be approved by her before he may enter the club. The requirements are very strict, and in this way only students with marked dramatic ability are permitted to become members.

The outstanding achievements of the Playcrafters this year were the plays: "Punishing Polly," "Sherwood, which was one of the largest and best school plays ever produced at Lincoln, and "The Taming of the Shrew," another finished piece of work.

THE RAILSPLITTER

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Elmore Keyes	Editor-in-Chief	Mazine Roush
Emmett Williams	Managing Editor	Clara Bartlett
Anthony Saarela	Sport Editor	Anthony Saarela
Harris Robinson	Business Manager	Arthur Scharlin
Herbert Meyers	Circulation Manager	Israel Tilles

During the first ten weeks of the Winter term, a weekly Railsplitter was published, but with the beginning of the second ten weeks, a daily publication, known as the Lincoln Daily Railsplitter, was turned out by the Journalism department, making it possible for Lincoln to boast of printing one of the two daily high school papers published in the West.

In the fall term the Railsplitter received a cup awarded by the California Press Association, for the best high school humor column in the State.

The paper is a live, newsy organ of publicity, made so by the earnest efforts of the staff and the journalism classes. It is strictly a Lincoln publication, verily "by the students, of the students, and for the students," and is set up, printed and published in our own shops.

SCRIBBLERS' CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Nathan Nelson	President	Nathan Nelson
Anna Honegar	Vice-President	Sarah Lamm
Frances Edgar	Secretary and Treasurer	Frances Edgar
Frieda Berkowitz	Railsplitter Representative	Israel Tilles

Membership in the Scribblers' Club is open to all students who are interested in good literature and enjoy writing. In this club students with all degrees of ability are instructed in how to apply and improve their literary talent.

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Walter Potter, the Scribblers have held several successful literary contests during the year in short story writing, essay composition, poetry and one-act plays. As prizes, valuable books were given to the successful contestants.

Due to the restricted time limit for discussing books and authors, the Scribblers decided to have an after school meeting on the second and fourth Thursday of each month, when refreshments were served and the members enjoyed interesting and profitable discussions.

SENIOR BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Earl Metz	President	Harris Robinson
David Swaim	Vice-President	Clarence Davis
Clarence Davis	Secretary and Treasurer	Mart Walt
Mont Shaw	Business Manager	Bernard Harrison
Ira Rohland	Head Librarian	James Roselli
Harry Cohen	Assistant Librarian	Edgar Clemens

Under the supervision of Mr. Curtis, the Senior Boys' Glee Club has been foremost in all school activities, and its members are always serving Lincoln. Musically, the Club has sung not only on school programs, but has given many programs of its own over the radio and at outside schools and organizations.

The annual fall reception was held at Crescent Bay, where the neophytes were introduced to the Glee Club's method of initiation. For social purposes, Mr. Curtis and Mrs. Howeth, directors of their respective organizations, gave a reception party to the combined Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs.

A new uniform, consisting of duck knickers, orange and black hose, and white sweater, was adopted as the official dress at all performances.

During the summer term, the reception for the new members was held among the snowy peaks of Mount Baldy. Musical programs were given over radio stations KNX and KHJ also.

SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Lucille Lawrence	President	Irene Jacobs
Mildred Mays	Vice-President	Pearl Grigg
Ruth Conrad	Secretary	Coralee Smith
Irene Jacobs	Treasurer	Ruth McGilliard
Catherine Messersmith	Librarian	Dorice Negley
Pearl Grieg	Assistant Librarian	Ellen McKillip

The Senior Girls' Glee Club ranks as one of the foremost clubs at Lincoln High School, having gained this most enviable reputation by its willingness to serve. The girls meet every day, and under the capable leadership of their sponsor, Mrs. Howeth, have developed group singing to an unusually lovely and artistic degree.

Aside from singing at aud calls, the club presented a clever stunt at the upper grade Hi Jinks; sang for the Christmas program and at the State Principals' Convention at Hotel Huntington, and participated in both the school play, Sherwood, and the opera, Briar Rose.

A part for new members, and a reception given to the Senior Girls' and Senior Boys' Glee Clubs by Mrs. Howeth and Mr. Curtis, were the big events of the year. The glorious welcoming party, held at the beach, will never be forgotten by the girls, while the reception proved a wonderful success.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Albert Carfagno	President	James Fullipelo
Frank Casey	Vice-President	Helen Otto
James Fullipelo	Secretary and Treasurer	Frank Ramos
	Treasurer	Anna Harris
Italo Illengo	Librarian	Ella Neiman
	Pit Man	Carl Anderson

One of the most important organizations in our school life is the Senior Orchestra, as practically every school performance requires its services, which are always rendered willingly. Anyone who has heard this orchestra will agree that it is a fine organization, and that Mr. Mulford and Mrs. Howeth deserve much credit, for it is due to their conscientious efforts that the group is so successful.

During the winter term the Senior Orchestra played for the school play, "Sherwood," and the Alumni Opera, "The Pirates of Penzance," not to mention its services to the Women's Catholic Club, the Broadway Department Store and at the Winter Commencement.

More recently the orchestra has played for "The Taming of the Shrew," the General Hospital Nurses' Commencement, the school opera, "Briar Rose," and for the Commencement of the Class of Summer '26.

SPANISH CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Jose Limon	President	Daniel Gutierrez
Jose Zazueta	Vice-President	Frank Ramos
Rachel Holguin	Secretary	Lillie Garcia
Mercedes Miller	Treasurer	Jessie Villava
	Sergeant-at-Arms	Fino Pargo

The year 1925-1926 proved to be an unusually active year for the Spanish Club, its greatest achievement probably being the rally which was given before the Hollywood-Lincoln football game. This gay burlesque consisted of an intriguing plot in which bull fighters, toreadors and Spanish dancers tripped across the stage in colorful succession to the delight of an appreciative audience.

On its amusement side the club displayed the same inspiration that brought into being the rally. Beside a number of parties, one of which was given for the parents of the members, the club organized baseball and basket ball teams which played several times against teams of other clubs, always acquitting themselves creditably.

Students who have had one year of Spanish and who have received either an A or B in this work are eligible for membership in the Spanish Club.

S. P. Q. R.

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Reuben Kabrinsky	Consul	Nesta Dunn
Nesta Dunn	Praetor	Alonzo Little
Fannie Schneiderman	Aedile	George Smith
Lillian Isgur	Quaestor	Eva Blockman
Israel Gold	Sergeant-at-Arms	Israel Tilles

The S. P. Q. R. Club is comprised of students who have completed two years of Latin, or who are taking Latin, and are interested enough to wish to become better acquainted with other Latin students. The main purposes of the club are to promote the general welfare of the school, to foster an active interest in Latin, and to develop high ideals of scholarship and character.

Many students have wondered just what the letters S. P. Q. R. stand for. They are the abbreviations for "Senatus Populusque Romanus," or the "Senate and People of Rome," and as applied to the club mean the advanced and beginning students of Latin.

During the past year the members have had various speakers at the meetings, and in this way interest in the meetings has been stimulated.

A number of highly successful parties, picnics, and inter-club baseball and basket ball games have made up the year's activities, the most unique of which was given in honor of the parents and friends of the members. At this affair a Roman program was featured which proved to be refreshingly different and entertaining.

STRING ENSEMBLE

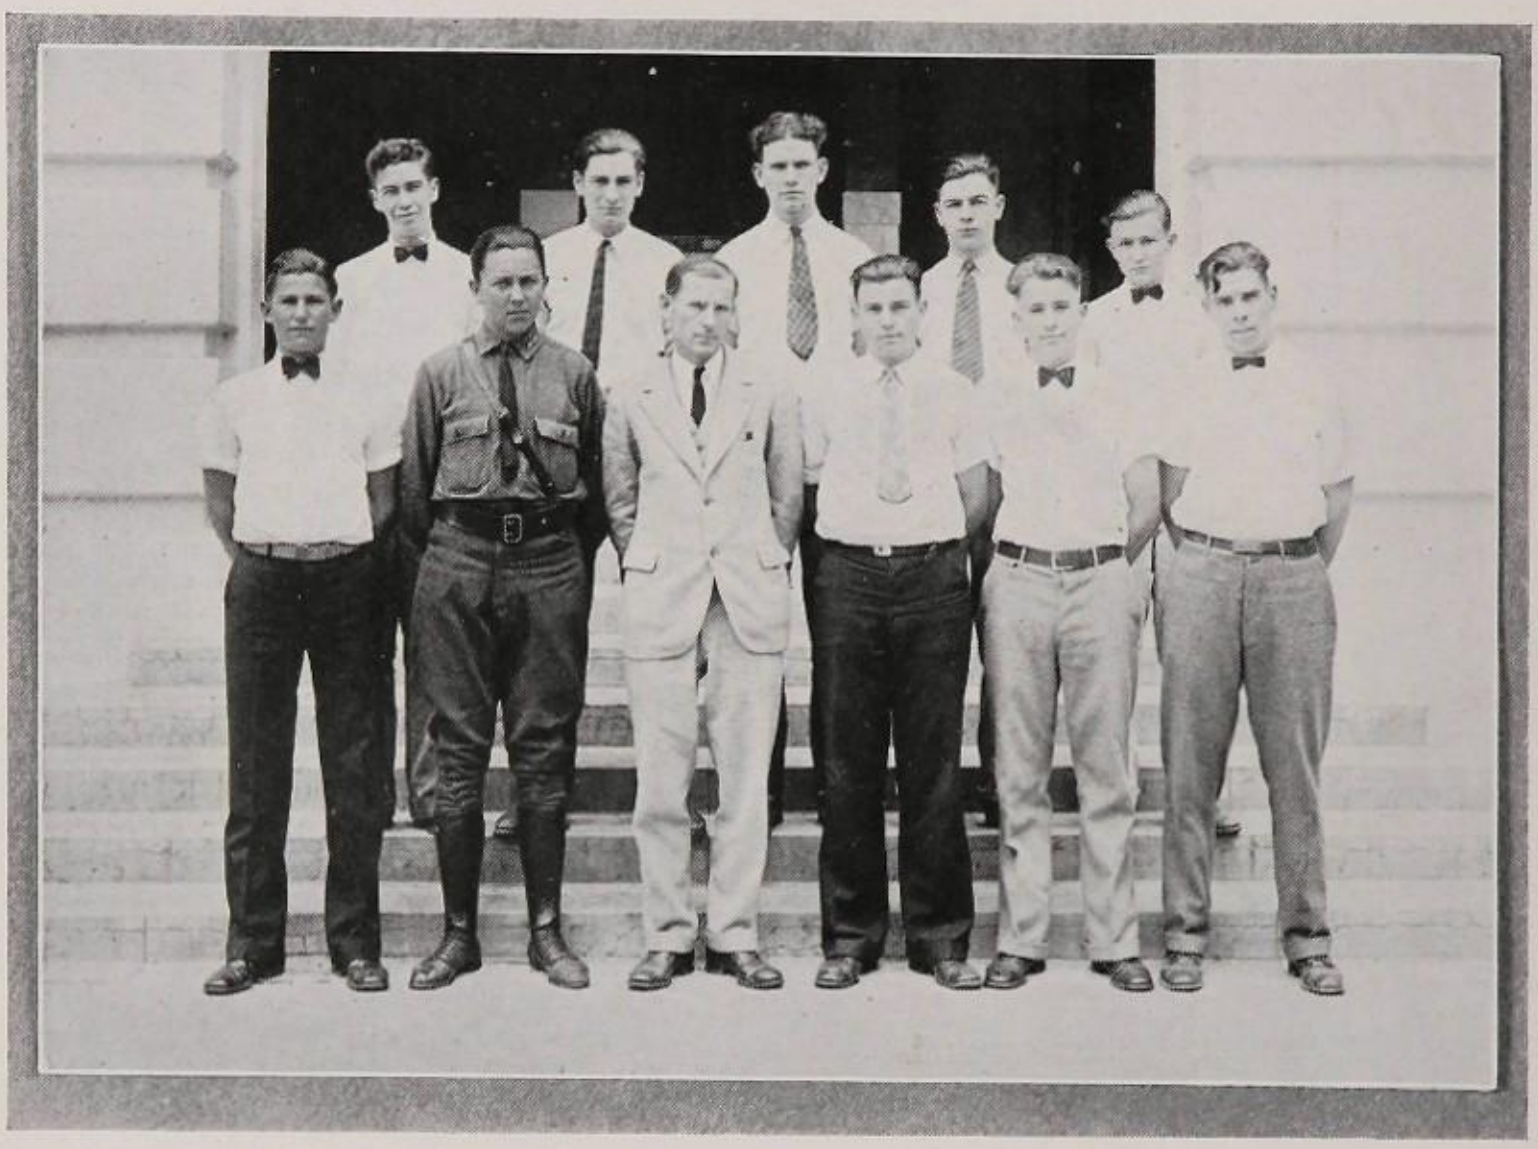
Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Louis Jacobs	President	Helen Otto
Italo Illengo	Vice-President	Edward Shapiro
Helen Otto	Secretary and Treasurer	Mary Moshinsky
Mary Moshinsky	Librarian	Frances Edgar
	Librarian	Jack Green

The String Ensemble, directed by Mr. Potter, is one of the oldest organizations at Lincoln, and is always in great demand both at school and elsewhere.

Ensemble playing is probably more difficult than any other form of group playing, and a great deal of practice is necessary to perfect the art.

During the past year, the String Ensemble has played for the Vocational Teachers' Banquet, Vesper Services, and Aud Calls. Besides playing as a group many times, individual members have given much pleasure to students and friends of the school on various occasions by appearing on programs in solo numbers.

The excellence of their performances may be judged by a letter received by Mr. Potter from Mr. Morgan N. Smith, President of the Vocational Educational Federation of Southern California after the String Ensemble had played for the Vocational Banquet held during Institute week. In this letter Mr. Smith thanked Mr. Potter and the members of the Ensemble for their music and congratulated them upon the splendid program they gave.



STAGE CREW

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Jack Cissna	Manager	John Giacone
Clarence McGilliard	Assistant Manager
Bud Newton	Chief Electrician	Donald Moore
Wayne Sullivan	Chief Grip	Thomas King
Ancil Abbott	Chief Flyman	William Backer
John Giacone	Master of Props	Frank Samis

Mr. H. Arden Edward, Sponsor

The Stage Crew is one of Lincoln's most valuable organizations, and rarely does one see a member of the Crew when he is not busy. Although not generally recognized, the work behind the scenes is as important as the work on the stage in making any performance successful. The boys on the Stage Crew put in a great many hours on every production and deserve much credit.

Under the capable leadership of Jack Cissna, the Stage Crew built the scenes in the play Sherwood, which was considered one of the biggest plays ever presented at Lincoln. Settings for The Pirates of Penzance, The Taming of the Shrew, and the opera, Briar Rose, were also constructed by the Crew.

In recognition of the wonderful assistance and service rendered by the Stage Crew, one of its members, John Giacone, was appointed a Commissioner with the title of House Manager. His chief duty is to be responsible for all stage settings.

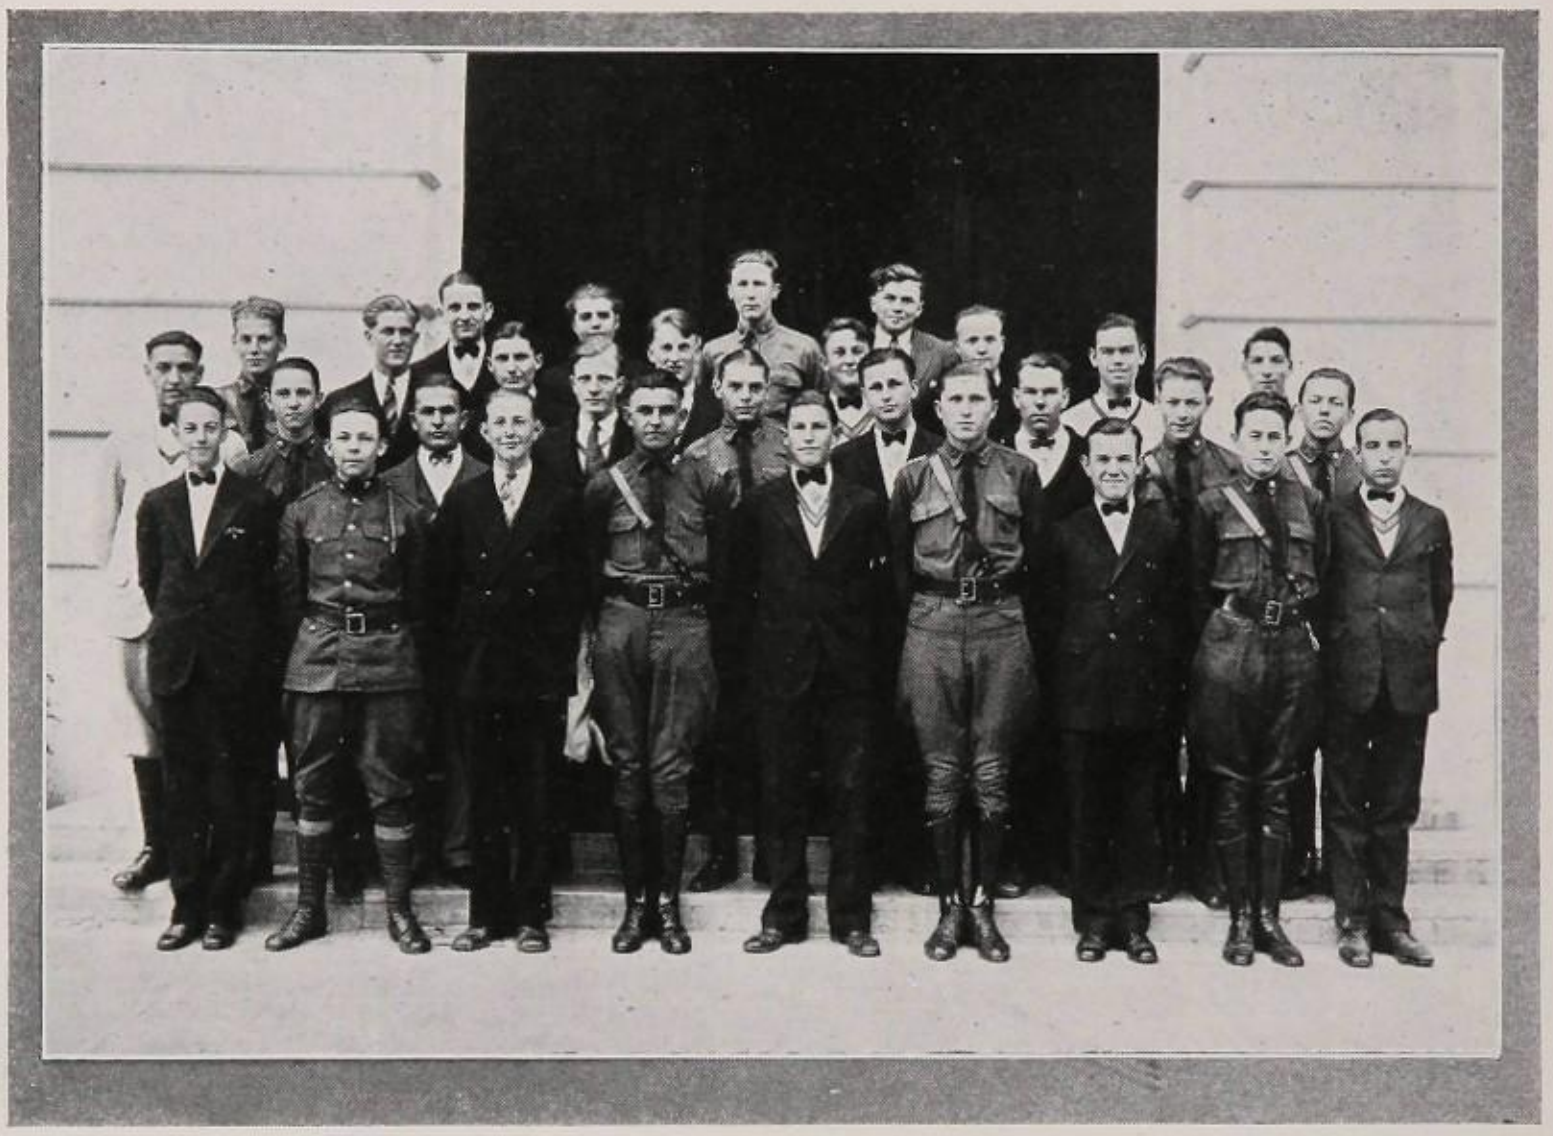
TROUBADOUR CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Stanley Cooper	President	Charles Curtis
Vilan Couch	Vice-President	Charles Hollinger
Joel Lissitz	Secretary and Treasurer	Earl Vignes
Victor Gegoux	Librarian	Lester Brann

The Troubadour Club has been organized for a number of years, and has become very popular with the boys of Lincoln. Any boy in school is eligible to membership in this organization, for which the members receive a music credit.

During the winter term Mrs. Drury, the director, was seriously injured, and due to this misfortune the boys were unable to continue, so the club was temporarily disbanded. With Mrs. Drury's return, at the beginning of the winter term, the boys enthusiastically took up the work again and made several public appearances. They sang on programs given at neighboring grammar schools, and also took part in the program given by the boys of the school during boys' week.

Previous to Mrs. Drury's accident, the boys had a picnic at Santa Monica, which was a most enjoyable occasion.



USHER CORPS

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
William Watkins	Head Usher	William Weiss
Stanley Cooper	Assistant Head Usher	Osgood Ballenger
Geroge Cones	Secretary and Treasurer	John Valerie

No production is complete without its corps of ushers to assist in seating the audience at entertainments of all kinds. Lincoln may well be proud of her usher corps this year, as the boys have given much time and loyal service in this work at all school plays and productions.

Each Usher is required to serve at least one night during productions which last two nights or more. However, many of the boys have ushered every night during the run of each play.

Besides ushering at school plays, the corps serves during graduation exercises, and one of its newest and biggest tasks is that of taking the roll at aud calls.

Outside affairs at which the boys have given their services have been the Alabama-Washington football game, Ascot Speedway and the Shrine Auditorium.

Due to the fine spirit of co-operation among the members and officers, the Usher Corps has proven to be of inestimable value to Lincoln High School. The Corps is fortunate in having Mr. Martin Fluckey as sponsor.

HAPPY CHANTERS

This merry organization grew out of the Girls' Chorus last term. It is under the able directorship of Mrs. Drury, has for its aim the preparation of its members for membership in the Senior Girls' Glee Club, and in the accomplishment of this aim gives excellent training in the fundamental principles of part singing.

All girls are eligible and members receive an extra music credit.

The officers for the summer term were: Ella Boyle, president; Mary Kosareff, vice-president Alice McLaughlin, secretary; Margaret Tedford and Grace Beed, librarians.

JOURNALISM CLUB

The Journalism Club was organized during the summer term of the year 1926, its purpose being to interest students who are not taking journalism in the work of journalistic writing. The members write newspaper articles of different kinds every week and in this way gain practical writing experience.

This organization, though young, has helped to make the Railsplitter a success, and everyone is anxious for it to continue to flourish in the future as it has during the past term.

MADRIGAL CLUB

The Madrigal Club, organized during the summer term, is a musical society for girls who have completed the ninth grade. Its purpose is the preparation of material for the Senior Girls' Glee Club. Regardless of the fact that the Madrigal Club is very new, it advanced rapidly last term, and seems destined to become one of the most popular clubs for lower grade girls at Lincoln.

The officers were: Gladys Niles, president; Margaret Calhoun, secretary; Ethel Mills, treasurer; Alma McCurdy, librarian; Margaret Simms, assistant librarian.

YOUNG BARRYMORES

Students of all grades interested in dramatics make up the membership of the newly organized Young Barrymores. In spite of its youth, the organization has already presented two plays to the student body. During the next term it is planned to establish the system of tryouts for entrance. Much of the credit for the club's efficiency and success is due to the never flagging interest of Mrs. McClean, faculty sponsor.

GIRLS' RESERVES

The Lincoln Chapter of the National organization, the Girls' Reserves, started during the term W'26 with Idonna Douglass as president; Cora Lee Smith, vice-president; Martha Verna, secretary; and Lucile Burgess, treasurer, all elected for one year.

The aims are to promote friendship among the girls, to uphold the standards of the school and to help whenever called upon. The club has proved most successful in its purpose and beneficial to girls and school alike.

BOYS' LEAGUE

The Boys' League is still in its growing stage. From a rather inactive organization, Russell Striff, president during the term W'26, did his part toward imbuing into it the spirit of usefulness that it was meant to have. During the last term a president, George Cones, a vice-president and a secretary and treasurer were elected who were determined to raise the organization to a position of importance in the school's activities.

POST GRADUATES

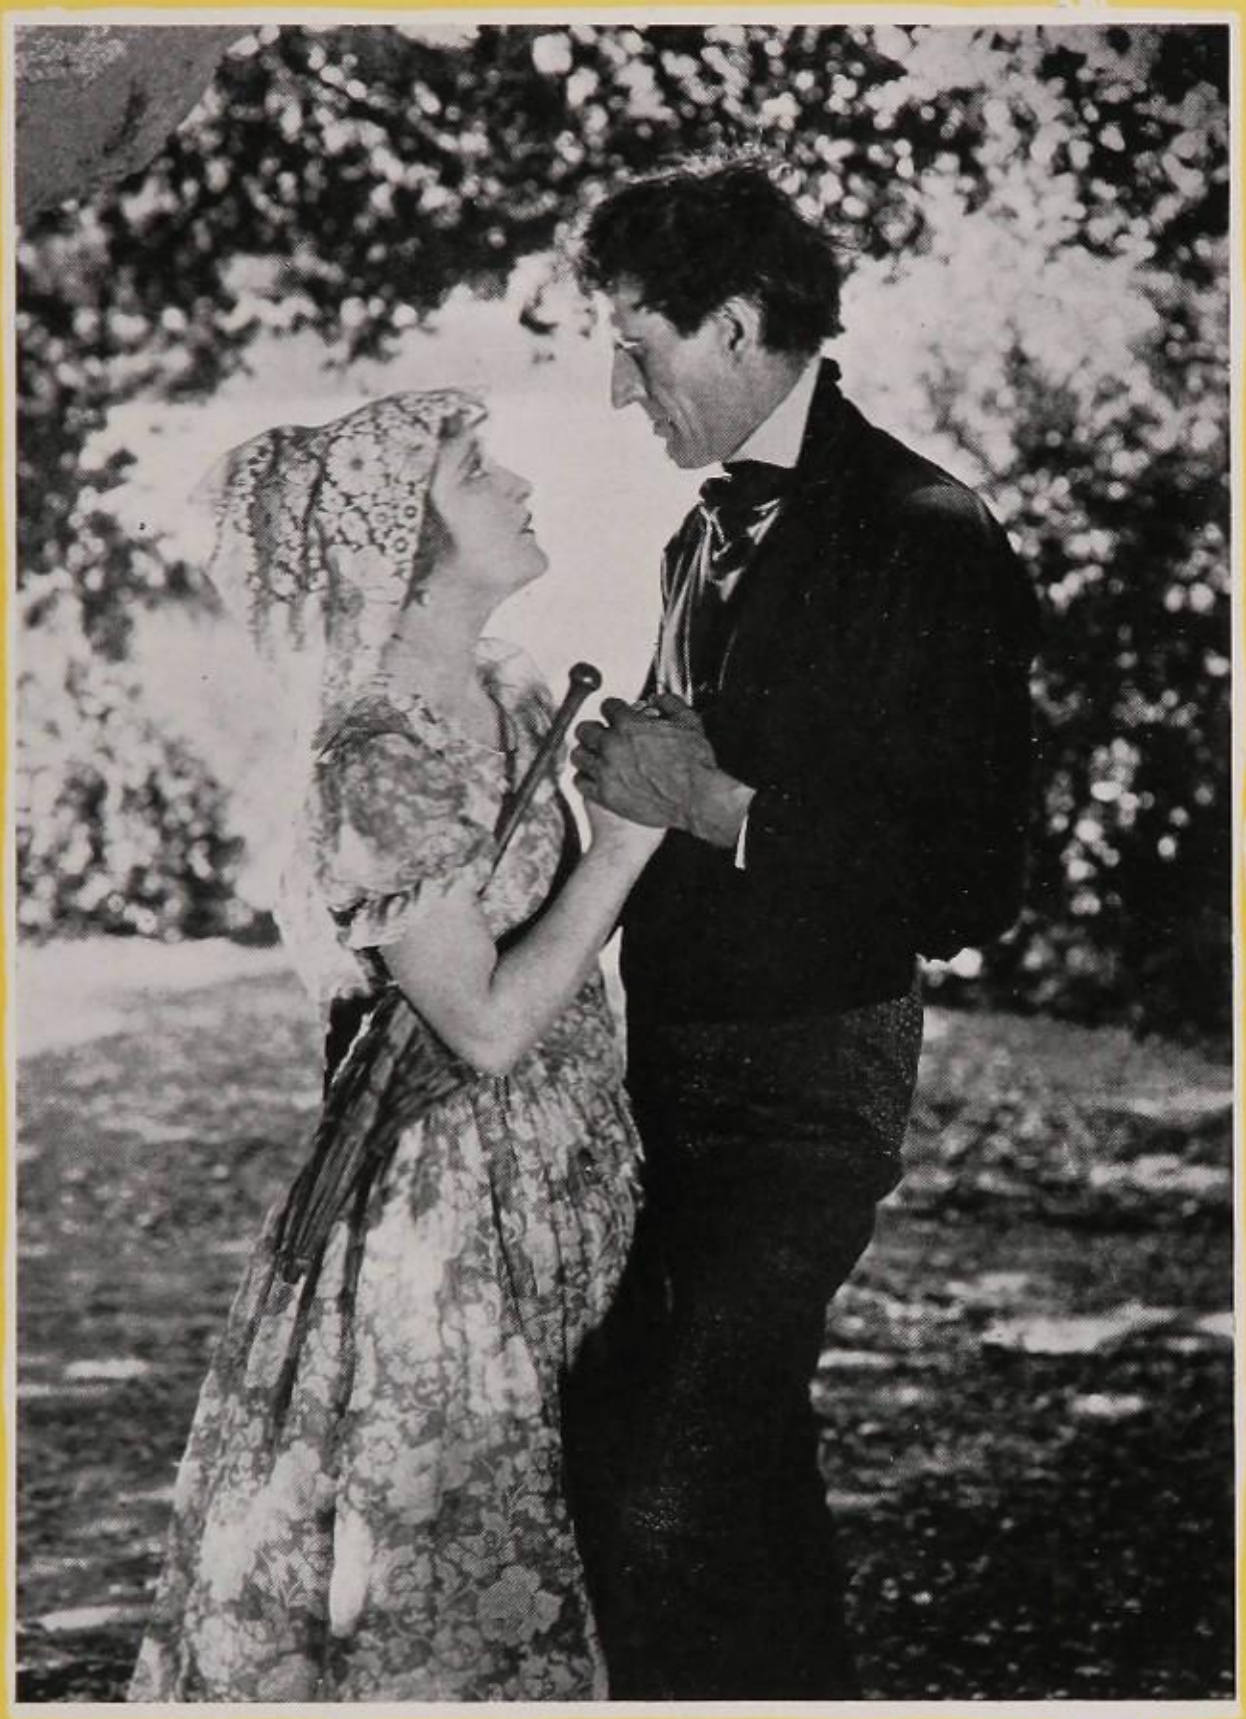
Because of the unusual opportunities offered to the students of Lincoln High School by means of the Special Intensive Stenographic Course, more graduates returned to their Alma Mater this term than have ever done so before.

This Special Course originated in the Spring term of 1925. The first term it was mostly composed of older girls and women who had been out of high school for some time. At the beginning of the second term, because of the many requests, it was decided that Seniors could also enroll in these classes.

Most of these Special Students are taking other studies, such as bookkeeping, penmanship, and office practice, along with their shorthand. Others, though fewer in number, are taking mathematics and a foreign language for college entrance requirements.

Some of those who took this Special Course were Thelma Lallie, Stanley Cooper, Marietta Chew, Idonna Douglass, and Muriel Walker.

Besides those who remained to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by this course, there were those who returned to post for college. Some of this number were Russell Striff, Frances Michelson, Merrill Johnson, and John Katzmaier.



DRAMATICS

TAMING OF THE SHREW

The Taming of the Shrew, Shakespeare's most delightful comedy, was successfully presented by the Playcrafters. The sets, expressing the simplicity so much the vogue in modern stage backgrounds, were composed for the most part of velour curtains against which the gorgeous costumes stood out in colorful relief.

Robert Young, playing the part of Petruchio, the tamer of wild cat Katherine, gave to his lines a zest that even Shakespeare, were he alive, would have commended. Katherine, the impossible, was played exceedingly well by Edith Williams. Thomas King, alias Grumio, acted with truly professional ability. Bernard Harrison as Baptista, the father, and Georgia Tewalt as Bianca, the sweet daughter, did credit to their parts.

REJUVENATION OF AUNT MARY

THE REJUVENATION OF AUNT MARY

The much talked of change of an old lady to a sprightly flapper was the theme of "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," the play presented by the class of W'26. Nan Phillips portrayed the ancient aunt who had charge of her nephew, a college boy, played by Merrill Johnson. The boy was one of that kind who is everlastingly "in Dutch" with his teachers. Opposite him played Lorraine Arthur, who intrigued with him in his efforts to steer clear of Aunt Mary. The play ended with the unusual—the rejuvenation of Aunt Mary.

SHERWOOD

Sherwood, Alfred Noyes' translation of Robin Hood, was the largest production ever attempted at Lincoln, having a cast of over a hundred and twenty-five.

Three different girls, Margaret Miller, Betty Henderson, and Georgia Tewalt, enacted the role of Maid Marian, the heroine.

Robert Young took the part of Robin Hood. Although an extremely difficult part for a high school student to play, Bob did it so well that it is safe to say that it was the finest piece of acting ever seen at Lincoln.

The production was most unique and owed its professional excellence to the fine directing of Mrs. Gray.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE

Very enjoyable and well deserving of praise was the Alumni Glee Clubs' presentation of the internationally famous comic opera, "The Pirates of Penzance." The three leads, Lola Kierstead Beckner, Clinton Steele and Thomas Bartle, displayed marvelous voice quality, for which much credit is due to Mrs. Howeth and Mr. Curtis. The costumes, gorgeous in both style and color, were further enhanced by appropriate settings. The production was a decided success thanks to Mrs. Howeth and Mr. Curtis, who trained and directed the cast. To Mr. Mulford and his students also is due credit for the expressive orchestral work during and between scenes.

BRIAR ROSE

The opera this year was one of the most fantastic ever produced at Lincoln under the able directorship of Mr. Curtis.

The story was based on the fairy tale, "Sleeping Beauty," and consisted of a prologue and three acts. The music was composed by Mr. Cur tis and the lyrics by Miss Agnes Peterson. Attractive sets were made by the stage crew and the scene painting class under the direction of Mr. Edwards.

The opera would not have been the great success it was, if it had not been for the untiring effort and cooperative spirit of the choruses from the Senior Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, the Senior Orchestra and the costume and art classes of Lincoln.

VOCATIONAL

VOCATIONAL

The already widespread fame of Lincoln High as a vocational school has been greatly enhanced during the past year by the acquisition of new equipment and enlarged shop space that made for more all-round efficiency. There are various vocational courses available at Lincoln, all of which prepare the students for entry into vocational life immediately upon leaving school.

The Mechanic Arts Department offers some of the most practical vocational courses given, including Furniture, Upholstery, Ceramics, Pattern Making and Cabinet Making. The boys of this department gain valuable training and experience through the production of useful, substantial articles.

The Berkeley Exhibit of 1926 was prepared, in a large part, in the Lincoln shops. The Upholstery department has to its credit an excellent chair, made by the members of the department for Miss Andrus. The upholstery of the chair was further enhanced by the work done on it by Mrs. Andrus in Petit Point and Gros Point stitching.

Every girl enrolled in school must have at least one year of Home Economics. The range of subjects is wide, the selection being made from Design, Dressmaking, Foods, Millinery, Sewing or Clothing. The courses are very complete and qualify students for entrance into clothing factories. are very complete and not only instil in the girls the fundamental principles of housekeeping but also fit those who specialize, for entrance into clothing factories. Many students take advantage of the latter opportunity.

The Art Department, which has a fine reputation, is famous for its Trade Art Course. This course gives instruction in such subjects as Costume Design, Show Card Drawing, Fabric Design, Cartooning, Magazine Ad Design, and Sign Board painting. In art contests, Lincoln's Art Department never fails to win a prize.

This department plays an important part in school life, especially as supplementary to dramatics. Art students make all the posters advertising forthcoming productions and art students assist in the designing and painting of stage sets. Many of Lincoln's art students, upon graduation, obtain employment as trade artists.

Not the least among the vocational departments of Lincoln is the Publication Department. Among its achievements are the publishing of the Lincoln Daily Railsplitter and the doing of job printing for the school. Printing and machine composition are taught in this department, which turns out students capable of taking their places in the ranks of the printing trade.

The Lincoln print shop is well equipped, having practically all the accessories of a modern printing office. As is the case in all of Lincoln's shops, the students work, as nearly as possible, under actual trade conditions. In this way better printers are turned out than would otherwise be the case.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

LIEUT. RICHARDS

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps is the largest organized group of boys in Lincoln High School. There are about one hundred and forty cadets in the unit, each one of whom is endeavoring to raise the standards of Lincoln higher than ever before.

The term of Summer 1926 brought to a close the seventh successful year of the unit's existence. Twice Lincoln's R. O. T. C. has held national honors, and only an insufficient number of cadets this last term kept Lincoln from winning the honor a third time.

The cadet officers, under the able supervision of Lieutenant Alma W. Richards, have instructed their men in the important phases of close order drill, first aid and sanitation, military courtesy, and the manual of arms. The unit has reached such a high degree of efficiency that in order to be a commissioned officer, one must pass both first and second year tests.

The military science class, or officers' class, is also instructed by Lieutenant Richards. In this class, map reading, sketching, camping and marching, extended order drill, physical drill, and all other military duties are studied and discussed.

Red Letter Days in the "Army"

Colonel E. W. Clark made his usual quarterly inspection early in November, and on April seventh, Major Harry Lightfoot Jordan inspected the battalion. Due to inclement weather, the inspection was held in the gymnasium.

The regular semi-annual Military Balls were declared unusual successes by everyone. Major McCoy and Major Crozier each endeavored to make his battalion's Military Ball finer than ever before.

On the afternoon of May 31st, the entire unit went to the Coliseum. The occasion was the commemoration of Memorial Day, when the complete military and naval forces of Los Angeles and vicinity assembled to conduct appropriate services for the occasion.

To enable the cadets to prove their ability with the rifle, a rigid drill-down was held in place of the last battalion parade.

At the finish of the contest, diminutive Jesse Harrison was awarded a gold medal as first prize, with Crawford Jones and Richard Engle a close second and third respectively.

SCACCIA

Evo Pusich, halfback—All the teams looked alike to Evo and he rarely failed to come across with at least one fifty-yard sprint. Evo was without doubt one of the best half-backs in the city and easily gained a place on the official All-City Team selected by the coaches.

Russell Striff, end—Russell was the second grid athlete of Lincoln's history to gain a four-star monogram. He also earned a place on the All-State eleven of 1925 and was named end on the All-City Team.

Earl Nickerl, tackle—Earl in his third year on the team proved to be one of the best tackles in the City and earned an All-City position. Watch him go after his fourth L this fall.

Clarence Pagenkopp, center — Clarence was the other of the four Lincolnites named on the All-City squad. Clarence filled a big hole in the great Tiger line and will be severely missed this fall.

Lawrence McCue, tackle—Lawrence was one of the three best tackles in the city and should gain All-City honors next season. Only the presence of Francis Tappaan on the L. A. High team kept him from the coveted honors last year. Lawrence is a brother of the famous Jimmy McCue.

Chester Herdina, guard—Chet was another of the great Herdina family of football players, but played well enough to earn All-City mention on some unofficial teams. Chester should go big in his next try.

Alpo Palo was new to football but certainly earned his "L" in filling the position left vacant by the death of Mont Shaw. Alpo will be missed next year.

Tokyo Hamamoto, end—"Dick" was only a freshman, but rivalled Striff, the All-State end. Dick was a fighting terror in the Poly game.

Ray Chandler, fullback—Ray was the hardest working football player in the City League. He gave all he had to Lincoln and was rewarded by the cheers he received after his momentous touchdown in the Poly mixup.

James Roselli, quartetrback—Jimmy was the smallest signal caller in town but knew his business. Jimmy was another hero in the Poly game.

Winston Jones ran Hollywood, Manual Arts, and Poly ragged. He terrorized Hollywood. Winston figures to be one of the best fullbacks in the league this winter.

Earl "Ike" Lewis, Louis Glasser, Dave Neiman, and "Slippery Pete" Kondo also made their presence on the squad felt.

Captain Bill Medanich, halfback—Bill furnished much of the fight and moral backbone of the team. As captain, Bill piloted his eleven through the season with four victories and a tie to their credit. He certainly will be missed next year.

Dominic Scaccia was one of the most capable managers any football team ever had. Dominic gave much of his time and effort to making a success of his managing and, from appearances, succeeded wonderfully well.

THE GAMES

Lincoln, 26; Franklin, 0

The Franklin team put up a great scrap but was no match for Lincoln's eleven. It is true that the Tigers gained all the breaks, but the Kitefliers were decisively outclassed. The Avenue 54 crew never came within striking distance of Lincoln's goal posts. Lincoln's scores were the result of two spectacular runs by Pusich, a 32-yard run of Earl Nickerl following a recovered fumble, and a short line smash by Bill Medanich.

Lincoln, 7 Jefferson, 0

The score was the lowest to which the Democrats ever held Lincoln in football. Lincoln, however, proved superior to its rival, but the game was won only after a bitter struggle. Allensworth of the enemy was especially disconcerting to the locals. The only score of the game was the result of a 55-yard run by Pusich.

Lincoln, 7; Poly, 0

Lincoln completely outclassed the Mechanics throughout the first half. The Tigers, aided by sensational runs by Pusich, Bill Medanich, and Chandler, fooled the Mechanics badly. When Ray Chandler crossed the last line for the touchdown, a great cheer arose from the Lincoln side of the Coliseum. Pandemonium and joy reigned supreme during that moment. In the second half, Poly gained first downs three times within five minutes on Lincoln's six-yard line, and three times the mighty Lincoln line held the terrific offensive of the Washington Streeters for downs.

Lincoln, 15; Hollywood, 0

The forward passing attack of the Redshirts gave Lincoln a real scare for a while. As the first half drew to a close, Lincoln had the ball on its own 35-yard line; Russ Striff dropped back on punt formation and ran with the ball instead of kicking it. The referee's gun was fired as Russ crossed the 50-yard line, but he kept on going and stretched his jaunt into a 65-yard touchdown run. This score took the starch out of the Foothillers.

Lincoln, 0; Manual Arts, 0

Once again the Purple and Gray of Manual destroyed fond hopes of the Orange and Black of Lincoln. The rejuvenated Toilers led by their scrapping captain, Junior Hanford, completely demoralized the Tigers. Each team missed chances to score from within two yards of its opponent's goal. Jones, Striff and Pusich did wonderful work on the offense, but the age-old phrase "the breaks" made their work useless when in scoring territory. Hanford and De Miceli of Manual were the reasons why Lincoln lost the City Championship.

The week after Manual tied Lincoln, L. A. High, the team that was not in Lincoln's schedule, won the pennant by defeating Poly, 14-7. Had Poly held her 7-0 lead of half-time, Lincoln would have taken the banner. The L. A. High Romans closed their season with a record of five victories against four wins and a tie by Lincoln.

THE FOOTBALL SQUAD

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL

The Lincoln Lightweight football team of 1925 was an inexperienced but fighting bunch of players. Only two lettermen from last year's squad remained to form the nucleus of the team. Sayles Young and Mel Smith, student coaches, however, found plenty of green material to work with. These two moulded into shape a team which, though inexperienced, was fast developing into a machine-like organization before the end of the season. Although it won no games, it nevertheless refused to give up courage, and fought with the same spirit of determination in the last game that marked its playing in the first.

The first defeat came to the "Kindling Splitters" in the clash with Franklin. A bad break cost Lincoln the game.

Jefferson was next to smother the Lightweights. Two long passes for two touchdowns produced the 13 to 0 result.

Lincoln then succumbed to Polytechnic. Outweighed twenty pounds to the man, the Railsplitters fought to the last minute, and gave Poly its hardest game of the year.

Hollywood gave the Axe Wielders their fourth consecutive drubbing. Three blocked Lincoln punts were partly responsible for the lopsided score of 34 to 6.

Lincoln finished the season with .000 pct., by being licked by Manual Arts, 24 to 12, after leading the first half, 12 to 6.

Joe Casey, captain, was one of the best centers in the league. He was a constant inspiration to the team, and will be ready for the varsity next year.

Arturo Flores, guard, continually opened up holes for the backfield. He was one of the pair of two-star lettermen and is eligible next year.

Paul Ramirez, halfback, was nearly as fast in a football suit as in a track suit.

Americo Fontana was the star line-crushing fullback.

Brozzi Lunetta played a consistently good game at end.

Bob Dosier was one of the hardest hitting tackles in the city.

Lou Bertz was a good quarter back and was always full of fight.

Leo Lawrence was the second two-star man to return. Leo was a sturdy player at tackle.

Harold Hedrick was the smart little quarter back who ran the team. His signal calling was always of a high order.

Herndon Vaughan was a speedy end and a sure snagger of passes.

Sayles Young and Mel Smith developed a football team out of inex perienced material.

BASKETBALL

The Players

B. HARRISON

Edmund Christensen, forward—Eddie topped the field in scoring by annexing 69 tallies in five league games. His nearest competitor was Breer of Los Angeles High, who was a full twenty points behind Christensen though participating in six games. Edmund easily earned a berth on the official All-City five selected by the coaches. He is counted on as a strong nucleus for next year's five.

Joel Lissitz, guard—The Manual Arts Weekly said this of Joe: "He is the kind of guard who sticks to his man like a porous plaster, and covers him like a blanket." Joe will be back after his third "L" next spring.

Burnet Perce, center—"Peck," next to Eddie, was the Tigers' best bet on the offensive. He accounted for twenty-five points in the five contests. He played a sterling game at center and was good on the defensive.

Earle Perce, forward—Earle started the league season with the Lightweights, but developed such class that in midseason he was transferred to the heavies. He started things off with a bang by running wild against Poly. Earle has two more seasons.

Captain Reuben Kabrinsky, forward—Reuben was a very scrappy forward and had opposing guards watching him like a hawk. In the practice tilt with Long Beach Poly, Ruby scored nineteen points and was the main factor in Lincoln's 30-27 victory, which was the first Lincoln had ever gained against Long Beach.

Morgan Trammell, guard, was a fighter from the word go. Much of the team's success can be traced to the good work of Trammell, who not only proved to be one of the best guards in the league, but also an artist of no mean ability with the casaba.

Others who played but did not earn letters were James Blevins, Merlyn Herman, and Dick Lewis. Dick will be available for the 1927 squad.

The team was especially fortunate in having such a capable manager as Bernard Harrison. Bernard displayed true ability in the managing line.

THE GAMES

Lincoln, 32; Jefferson, 15

Seventeen markers scored by Eddie Christensen was the story of this game. Two sensational throws by Grossman of Jefferson in the first half kept the enemy score close to that of the locals, but in the last canto the fine work of Morgan Trammell and Captain Kabrinsky helped the locals to walk away with the contest.

Lincoln, 19; Manual Arts, 27

From the first toot of the referee's whistle until the gun went off, the tilt was a scrap. Joel Lissitz of the Tigers broke the ice by scoring the first basket, but McCormack immediately duplicated for Manual and the fight was on. Manual led by two points at the half and, playing a steadier basket ball than the locals, increased the margin to four points in the third quarter. The Tigers rallied at the start of the last period, but Manual came back with a strong finish to clinch the game.

Lincoln, 40; Polytechnic, 23

Polytechnic got off to a fine start, but let Earle Perce, whom Coach Livernash had promoted from the lightweights to the heavyweights in time for this game, get too frisky near their basket. In the second half, Eddie Christensen again went on a rampage and took the lead among City League point scorers. During the game, Eddie scored 14 points, Earle Perce scored 12, and brother "Peck" Perce accounted for 11.

Lincoln, 19; Los Angeles, 28

No excuse is offered for the loss of this game. Lincoln took on an eight-point lead in the first period, but blew it in the second when Breer, the Los Angeles star, went in. In the third and fourth quarters, Los Angeles increased her lead simply because Lincoln was disheartened after the sudden reversal of the score and failed to put up its best game.

Lincoln, 49; Franklin, 5

Franklin's Kitefliers furnished no resistance of any kind against the locals, who scored points with reckless abandon. Eddie Christensen again starred and was responsible for 24 Lincoln tallies. The score was the largest ever made by Lincoln in a City League game.

CLASS B BASKET BALL

In view of the various calamities which befell the team, Lincoln points to her 1926 lightweight basket ball team with pride because it was beaten only by the two leading teams in the league and gave each of these a terrific battle. The scores were: Lincoln, 33, Jefferson, 10; Lincoln, 18, Manual Arts, 22; Lincoln, 16, Polytechnic, 8; Lincoln, 17, Los Angeles, 33; Lincoln, 23, Franklin, 14.

The Team

Allen Winfield, forward—Allen scored consistently throughout the season and gave the opposing guards plenty of trouble. He will have another year of basket ball at Lincoln.

Albert Disarufino, forward—Albert was new at the game, but played an acceptable game in filling the shoes of Earle Perce, who was made a heavyweight in midseason.

Mart Walt, center—Mart is a long, lean, six-footer of the type that makes an ideal center. Mart played a steady game and may be a star next year.

Arthur Scharlin, guard—Artie was one of the best lightweight guards in the league. A severe illness prevented his appearance in some of the games and hindered the success of the team extremely.

Nick Gervasi, guard—Nick was fast and scrappy, and should be a wiz in the next two seasons.

Robert Dinman. If there were an All-City utility player, Bobby would be it. He was probably the most valuable man on the team.

Emmett Williams and Lewie Berger were also handy when substitutes were needed.

CLASS "C" BASKET BALL

The first Class C basket ball team ever put out at Lincoln was surely representative of the school. The team lost two games by close scores although not at full strength in either contest, but defeated other opponents easily.

The first scheduled game was forfeited by Jefferson, 2-0. Stellar playing by Ben Finkel, who scored 20 tallies all by himself, accounted for Lincoln's 31-24 victory over Manual in the second game. The Poly game was played away from home and Lincoln lost, 14-18. Finkel was held to a low total in this game and it hurt. The L. A. game was fourth on the schedule and the Roman Midgets took a close 19-17 decision from the locals for the championship. In the last game the Tiger Babes overcame a long early lead gained by Franklin and copped the fracas by a count of 20-15.

Ben Finkel and Sid Blacker at forward, Marshall Greer at center, and Lawrence Chasteen and James Madrid at guard, constituted the regular line-up. The principal substitute was Babando. Bonelli, Chung, Foster, Aratoni and Nathan Finkel were also available as reserves. The "star" of the team was Ben Finkel, who scored 47 points in four league games, averaging approximately 12 points per contest.

THE TRACK TEAM

Joe Fernandez, four star letterman, had a successful season. He gathered together fourteen points throughout the season and placed fourth in the quarter mile in the City Meet.

Gus Searcy, also a four-star man, placed second in the City Meet and fifth in the Southern California. His last year was his best. He will be missed next year.

As Captain Bud Newton is graduating this year, Lincoln will be left without any hurdlers. Bud placed fourth in the City Meet and gathered sixteen points in the dual meets.

James Harrison was the sensation of the track team. He was high point man on the team with thirty-eight points. Jim is back for another year and should help Lincoln's chances for a championship.

Walter Rehwald earned his three-star monogram this year. An excellent broad jumper, Walt accounted for a good many points. He placed second in the City, third in the Southern California, and first in the State Meet. He goes with the June class.

Johnny Marvin was one of the best milers in the city, but faltered in the big meet because of illness.

Tony Bernal ran the mile and 880 and turned in a surprising race in the longer event in the City Meet.

Paul Ramirez, sprinter, made his two-star monogram this year. Everyone will remember Paul in the L. A. meet. He is back next year.

Winston Jones made his first letter in track by making points in the low hurdles, shotput, and relay. He is back for two more years.

Charles Jacobs made his letter his first year out. He ran the relay in the City Meet. He will be good for points in the next two years.

Besides making a monogram in football, James Roselli ran the relay and made his track letter.

Robley Williams proved to be one of the three best high jumpers in the City when he tied for first place in the City Meet. In the Southern California he tied for second and in the State he tied for third. He is back next year.

Alpheus Osborne made his letter in the relay. He also ran the low barriers and should be a useful man next year.

Nick Gervasi, a graduate of the Class "C" division, made his letter by running the relay. He is back for another year.

Wayne Sullivan made his first letter this year. He accounted for fifteen points in the dual meets but did not place in the City Meet. He graduates this June.

Merlyn Herman repeatedly showed flashes of real speed in the hurdles and frequently finished ahead of Capt. Newton.

Harry Clifford was our best shot putter but lacked confidence in the meets. He should go strong next year.

Manager John Sullivan worked about as hard as any member of the team and was continually moving around after the batons, starter's pistol, poles, and other accessories.

Lincoln placed three relay teams in the meet and took a first place in a special field event. Walter Rehwald leaped 22 feet 1½ inches to grab a first.

Lincoln, 81; Franklin, 23

In the first dual meet of the season, Lincoln swamped Franklin 81 to 23. Harrison and Williams each scored ten points to star for the day.

Lincoln, 59; Jefferson, 45

Harrison again won both sprints in the meet held at Jefferson High. The meet was close and was not decided until the last two events. The final score was 59-45.

Lincoln, 76½; Belmont, 27½

In place of a meet with Hollywood, the Orange and Black competed against the Sentinels of Belmont High School. The Railsplitters shut out their opponents in three events and won by the score of 76½ to 27½.

Lincoln, 54; L. A. H. S., 50

Lincoln surprised all the dopesters and romped off with the meet, 54-50. Paul Ramirez starred in the meet when he ran a fast lap in the relay which gave us the race and the meet. Harrison again won both sprints.

City Meet

Polytechnic won the city track championship for the first time in history. Lincoln did not come through as expected but placed fourth. Poly collected 39-7/12 points while Hollywood got 31⅞ points. Manual was third with 20⅜ and Lincoln fourth with 19-1/3 points.

Southern California Meet

Poly again won the meet with 22-1/6 points. Hollywood pulled a second place just ahead of San Diego. Lincoln placed sixth with 8½ points.

State Meet

Three men and a relay team from Lincoln cinched fourth place in the State. Rehwald placed first in the broad-jump and established a new school record. The Tigers scored eleven and one half points. Poly won with 17 points and Hollywood was a close second with 15 points. San Diego was third.

The Players

James Heidenry, pitcher—"Lefty" displayed one of the best southpaw arms that Lincoln's baseball team has yet enjoyed. His work with the willow was a continual asset to the team.

Joseph Smith, pitcher—Joe proved strong in the relief role, and dazzled the Franklin batters to perfection for the eight innings after Heidenry's removal on account of injury.

Ernest Pederson, shortstop and pitcher—Ernie is a strong batter and good fielder. He has a blinding fast ball when in the pitcher's box.

Benjamin Newman, first base—"Rip" is slow but he is there. One of the most valuable players on the squad.

Brozzi Lunetta, second base—Brozzi performs up to par in the infield and is one of the most feared hitters in the city.

CHARLES CURTIS

William Backer, third base—was an outfielder previous to the season's opening, but when called upon to play third, developed into one of the best third-sackers in the league.

Hector Rangel, center field—"Rebel" was the best centerfielder in the league and a constant threat at bat.

Peter Kondo, right field—"Nip" is a dangerous hitter and is versatile, being ready to play at practically any infield or outfield position when called upon.

Joseph Padilla left field—Joe is not strong at bat but plays consistently and should develop into a star. He has three seasons to go.

Henry Patterson, catcher—"Hank" is a steady, capable receiver who can stand lots of work. His services will be available for two seasons more.

Wynne Pintarell, utility—Wynne is good on the field and not bad at bat. A capable substitute wherever a place is open.

Manuel Trevino, catcher, is good, fast, and scrappy. With some experience he will make Hank step for his job.

When it comes to managing a baseball team successfully, Charles Curtis is right there. Charles had the interest of his team at heart, and was always doing his best to assist the players in any way possible.

THE GAMES

Lincoln, 9; Manual Arts, 5

The Tigers donated Manual a bad beating in retaliation for the football upset of last fall. Willie Backer and "Rebel" Rangel were supreme at bat, each garnering three safeties in five trips to the platter. Brozzi was hit in the fifth and came back for more in the seventh, also drawing two walks and a hit.

Lincoln, 11; Jefferson, 4

The Democrats were swamped by a flood of Orange and Black tallies. Brozzi tallied thrice while Hec Rangel and Lefty starred with the bludgeon. One of Rebel's hits was good for the circuit. Brozzi hit a triple and a single.

Lincoln, 9; Franklin, 1

Lincoln batted around in the second frame, in which the Emancipators scored five runs on two hits. "Lefty" was hurt in the second inning when a batted ball struck him in the face and broke his nose. Joe Smith relieved him and in the eight innings of his mound tenure had the Kitefliers eating from his hand.

Lincoln, 0; Los Angeles, 10

Just as Lincoln's chances for capturing the pennant were piling up, Los Angeles spread the gloom by taking the long side of a ten to nothing score. The Railsplitters stuck to their guns even though they recorded no tallies. Willie Backer and "Lefty" Heidenry put up a good fight for the locals.

Lincoln, 7; Hollywood, 0

Peter Kondo and Lefty Heidenry were the causes of a dreary afternoon for Kelly's Foothillers, who gained two poor hits off Lefty's delivery. A wonderful stop and throw by Kondo which resulted in an out following Federson's relay to the plate, cut off a Crimson tally.

CLASS B BASEBALL

The Class B baseball team came back strong after losing its first game. At the date of this publication, the team had a good chance to get back into the running for the city pennant.

To date, the scores are: Lincoln 3, Manual Arts 9; Lincoln 12, Jefferson 11; Lincoln 9, Franklin 1.

Polytechnic forfeited the final game to Lincoln by a score of 9 to 0. This gave Lincoln her first sport championship in over two years.

Much of the success of the team is due Earl Vignes, student coach. Earl worked incessantly, building and perfecting his team and the result was well worth his time. Coach Vignes can certainly be proud of his team.

MRS. BARRETT | MISS ADAMS | MISS HYDE

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Lincoln has reason to be proud of her Girls' Physical Education department. Miss Grace Worthen, who has been head of this department for many terms, has worked hard to put the girls' sports on the high plane that it is at present. She is the chief sponsor of the G. A. A. and has the honor of having organized the first athletic association in the Los Angeles City High Schools. Now she is on a committee to perfect a system by means of which the Girls' Athletic Associations in the high schools of Los Angeles can be welded together into one organization having one constitution which will be used by each school belonging to the Association. This will simplify the point system which is now in vogue. She also formed the Girls' Military Club for the purpose of instructing girls in the art of the Manual of Arms.

Mrs. Barrett has charge of practically all the training for girls' sports. It can truly be said that she is responsible for every girl athlete Lincoln High School has turned out. Too much can not be said of her splendid work.

Petite Miss Adams is responsible for the graceful girls in her beginning and advanced dancing classes. Not only is folk dancing taught in these classes, but aesthetic and Greek dances as well.

Miss Hyde has charge of the corrective classes. That she has done her work well is evidenced by the fact that she is to be a member of the Physical Education Faculty at Southern Branch during the Summer '26 term. Together with Miss McAlmon, the school nurse, she has helped the girls who are underweight and also those who have been in need of corrective work.

These four members, Miss Worthen, Mrs. Barrett, Miss Adams, Miss Hyde, are directly responsible for the splendid gymnasium department of Lincoln High School and they are to be very greatly commended for the excellence of their work.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Frances Michelson	President	Virginia Ogilvie
Louise Bohning	Vice-President	Alice Judah
Lucille Lawrence	Secretary	Della Raggio
Alice Judah	Treasurer	Ida Mae Lewis

Every girl at Lincoln is an honorary member of the Girls' Athletic Association, but only those girls belonging to either the Advanced Dancing Club, Beginning Dancing, Athletic Club or the Military Athletic Club are active members. The organization was established to bring about a stronger sportsmanship and cooperative spirit among the girls of these four clubs.

The G. A. A. is sponsored by Miss Worthen, head of the physical education department for girls at Lincoln, while the sponsorship of the four individual clubs is divided among the other physical education teachers in Miss Worthen's department. The officers of this active organization are elected by the majority vote of the active members belonging to the Association, and the president automatically becomes the Girls' Sport representative on the Board of Commisioners.

There are many events of interest combined with the Girls' Athletic Association, but the most important is probably the "L" banquet. This banquet is given once each year by the Gymnasium department in honor of the girls who have taken part in the different sports, dancing, and other activities of the G. A. A., and reached the goal of the required five hundred points for their letters. This year Lincoln stood at the head of all the high schools by giving out fifteen letters to her girl athletes.

Under the sponsorship of Virginia Ogilvie, the presidents' forum of the G. A. A. was organized. Only the presidents of the four gym clubs and the officers of the G. A. A., sponsored by Miss Worthen, are allowed membership in the forum. Each president brings the problems of her club and presents them to the forum. In turn each president presents all the good and bad points received to her club at the next meeting. In this way the four clubs are more closely combined into one big organization.

The girls of the G. A. A. were sorry to bid Miss Jacobs farewell last year, but this year welcomed a very capable leader and teacher, Miss Hyde, into their organization.

"L" WINNERS

Any girl who earns 500 or more points through the Girls' Athletic Association is awarded a black and orange G. A. A. letter which she wears on her middy or sweater just as does a boy athlete sport his honors. The letter is five inches high and has a double shaft with the initials of the organization down the wider one. On the bar of the emblem the stars denoting the amount of points made by the student are placed. These letters are awarded at the annual "L" banquet given to the G. A. A. girls by the gym department.

Seven hundred points or more entitles a girl to wear a letter with stars on it. This year fifteen girls received their letters. Alice Judah, having 750 points to her credit, was awarded a two-star letter at the "L" banquet given on March 23rd, in our cafeteria. The others girls who received emblems were: Beatrice Wilson, Mildred Mays, Thelma Lallie, Margaret, Kroggel, Ida Mae Lewis, Virginia Ogilvie, Mabel Crum, Emma Illengo, Sarah Lamm, Mari Mitani, Lucille Lawrence, Rose Devren, La Nell Byers, and Irma Fulton.

ADVANCED DANCING CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Irene Jacobs	President	Sarah Lamm
Elsie Stadelman	Vice-President	Alice Judah
Katherine Lake	Secretary	Natalie Poetsch
Leona Reising	Treasurer	Barnetta Baum

The Advanced Dancing Club is one of the oldest clubs in the Girls' Athletic Association. Organized by the Gym Department for the purpose of entertainment and pleasure, the Advanced Dancing Club has been wonderfully successful in promoting a sense of rhythm and grace among its members.

The method of dance movements taught to its members is technical rather than ordinary natural movements. For a while, clog dancing took the fancy of the girls, but their greatest fun came in making pantomimes and putting them to music. Each girl made her own pantomime, and the best one was chosen to be given before the class.

Aside from regular class work, club members have participated in several aud calls, furnishing many little dances.

The requirements for entrance to the Advanced Dancing Club are an A or B in gymnasium work, and an inborn sense of rhythm and grace.

The success of this very active club is undoubtedly due to Miss Adams, its sponsor.

LES GAITES

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Dorothy Hindman	President	Georgia Dunlop
Nesta Dunn	Vice-President	Charlotte McDonald
Charlotte McDonald	Secretary	Ruth Vedder
Georgia Dunlop	Treasurer	Constance Hogan

Although Les Gaites is a very young organization at Lincoln, it is a popular one.

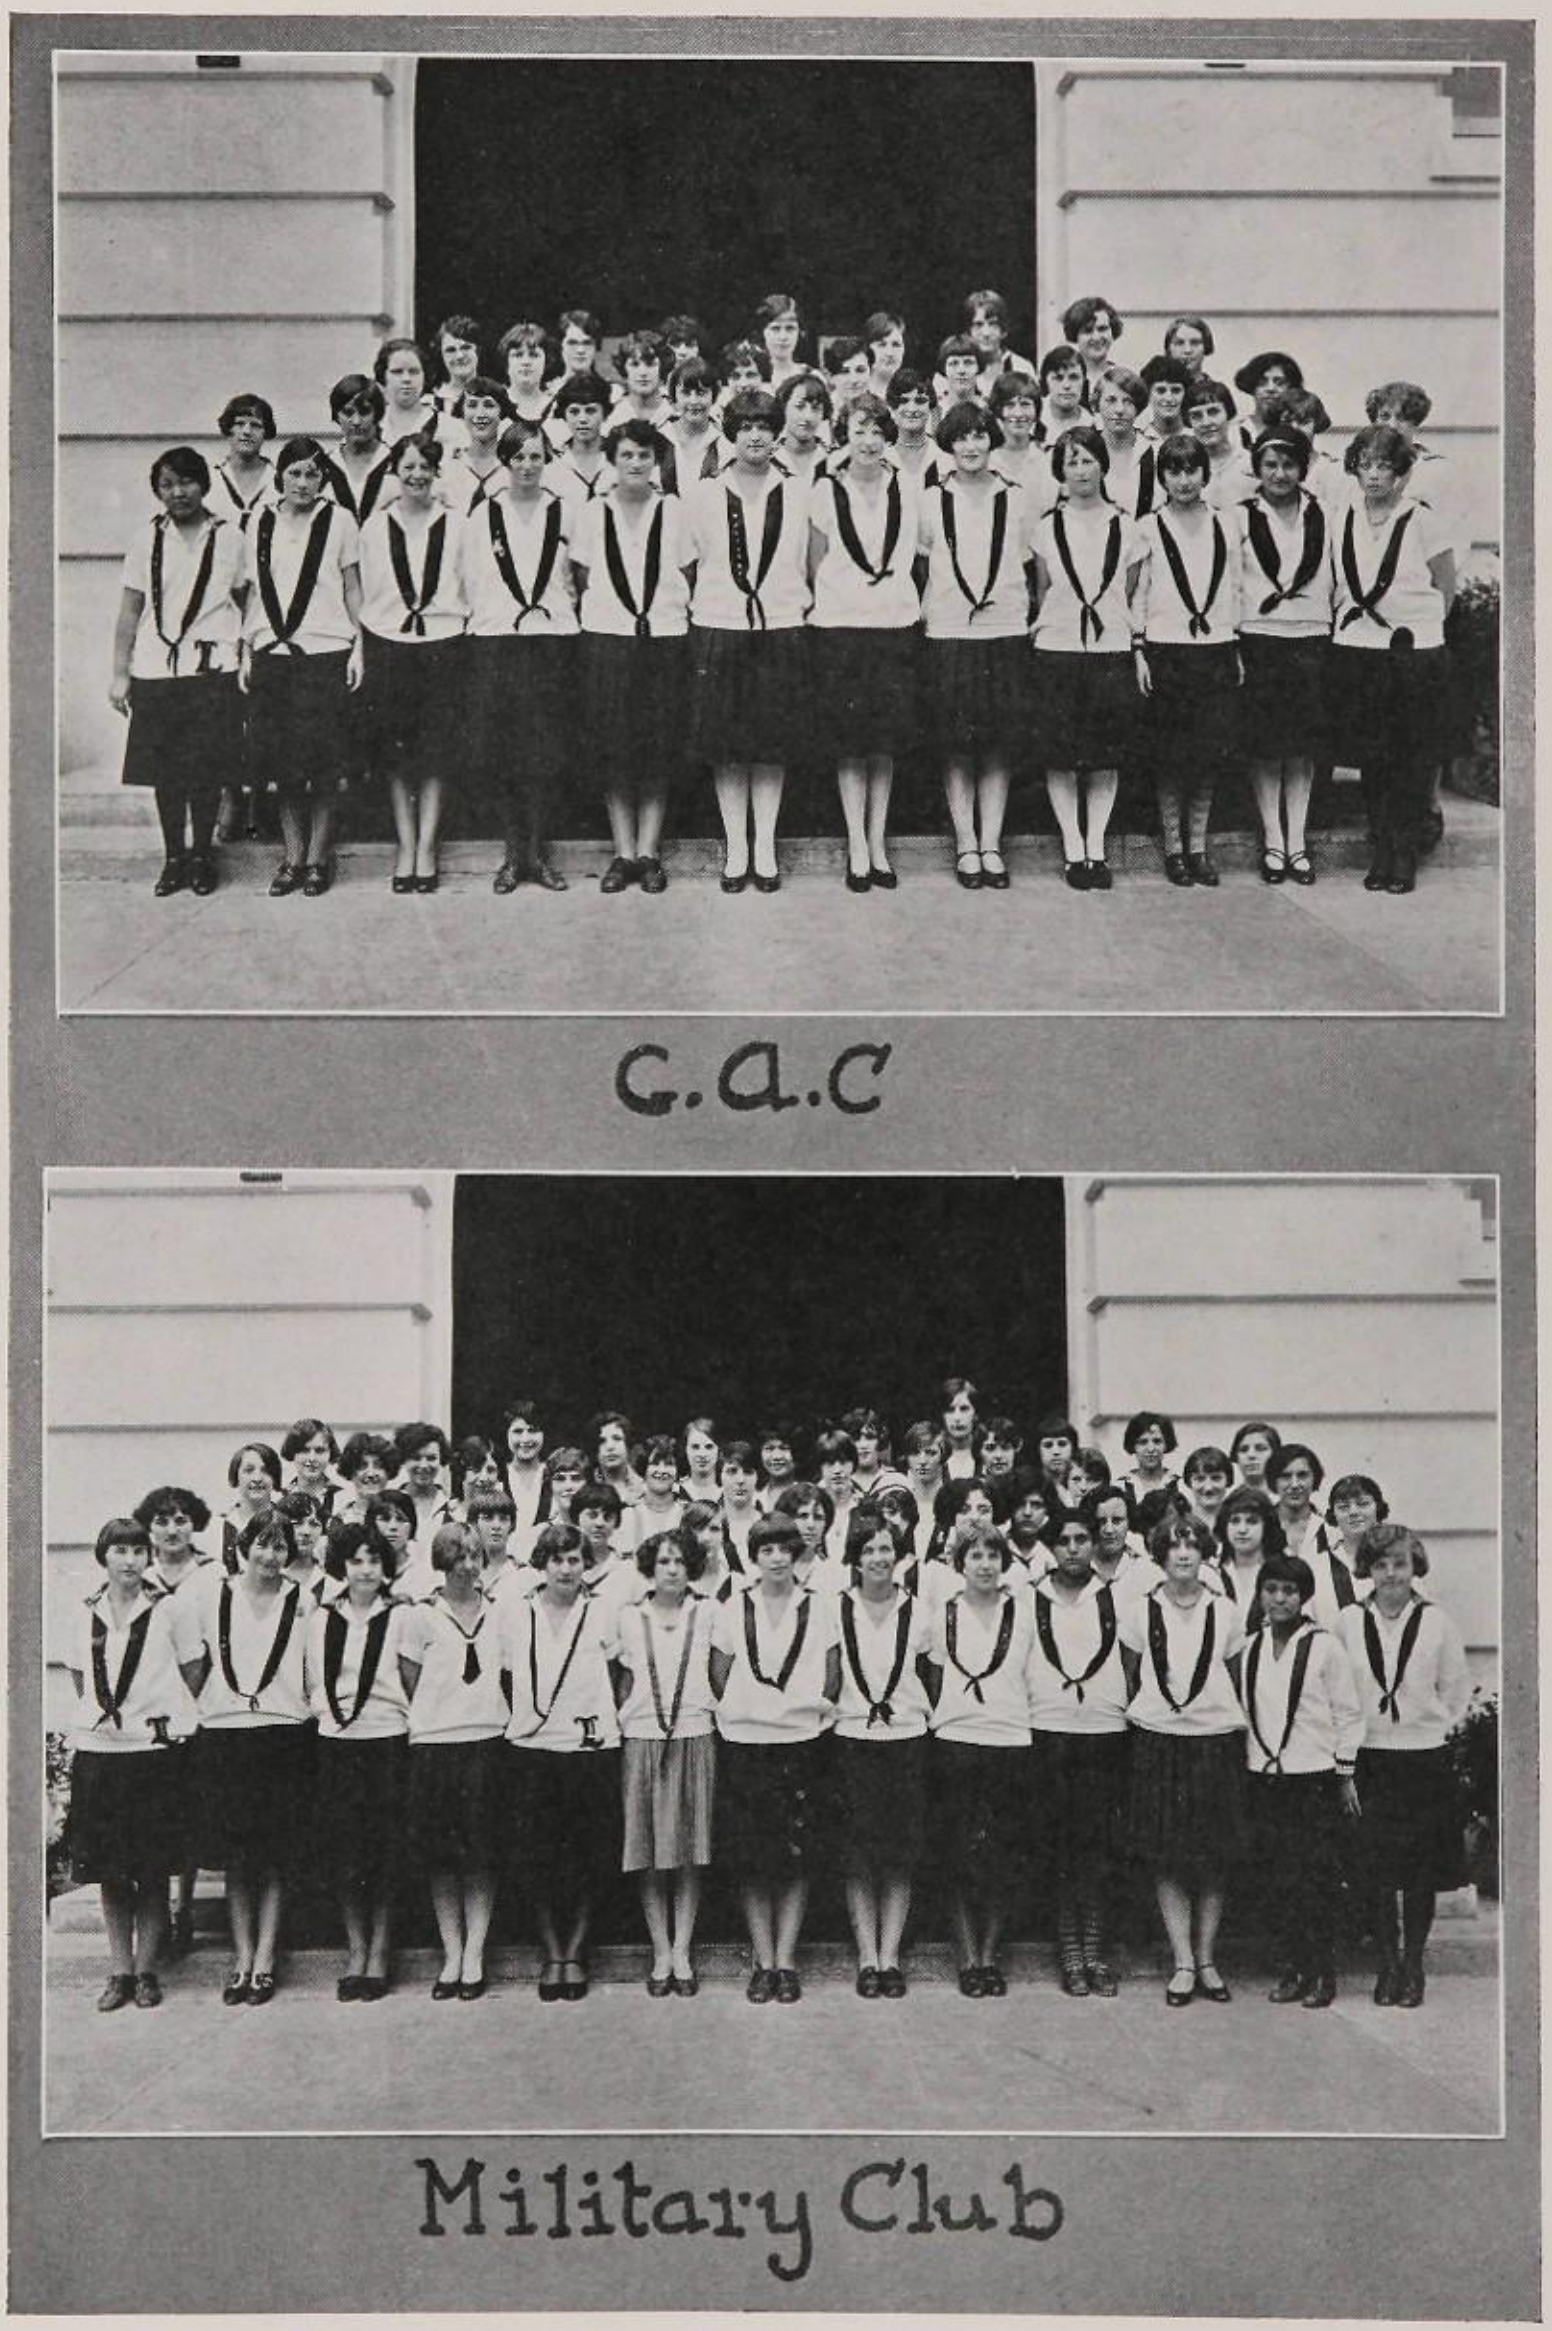
The membership requirements are the same as for the Advanced Dancing Club and the girls belonging to this club furnish dances for various school activities.

The Les Gaites express natural movements in rhythmic dances. These dances are not technical, but are just spontaneous movements to music.

The girls enjoy working out pantomimes during the dancing period, Mother Goose rhymes furnishing subjects for many of them.

This club starts the day right by meeting during first period and its members enjoy their work to the last moment.

Miss Adams is faculty sponsor of Les Gaites Club.



G.A.C

Military Club

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
Muriel Walker	President	Cleo Madriaga
Della Raggio	Vice-President
Alice Judah	Secretary and Treasurer	Dorothy Mayer

The Girls' Athletic Club is, as its name implies, the club of all athletics. Basket ball, baseball, soccer, speedball, hit-pin-ball, hockey, track, volley ball, and swimming are some of the sports enjoyed by the girls who join this organization. Not only do the girls learn the games when they enter the G. A. C., but they are taught good sportsmanship along with them.

This year the girls of the G. A. C. have competed with the girls of other high schools in many challenge games. The school at which the teams play gives a "play day." Not only one team from each school participates in the day's games, but teams for each sport of that season are matched.

In order to acquire membership in the G. A. C., one must have had an A in gym the previous semester and must be passing in four solids, beside which she must have some athletic ability.

The Athletic Club has been very successfully sponsored by Mrs. Barrett, who has helped the girls greatly by giving her time, after school, to those desiring practice during X period.

MILITARY ATHLETIC CLUB

Winter 1926		Summer 1926
LaNell Byers	President	Murlin Johnson
Louise Bohning	Vice-President	Reva Leslie
	Secretary	Winnie Eastman
	Treasurer	Georgia Tewalt

The Girls' Military Athletic Club, of which Miss Worthen is sponsor, was organized a year ago, taking the place of the Gym Club. Three days a week the girls study military tactics, while the other two days are spent in athletic work.

The class is a company which is divided into platoons and squads. The captain and the two lieutenants of the unit are chosen by competitive tests, the one receiving the highest mark getting the highest office. These are known as the commissioned officers, while the sergeants and the corporals of each squad of eight girls are non-commissioned officers.

The Girls' Athletic Association corresponds somewhat to the R. O. T. C., and girls who like snap and efficiency find just the type of work they enjoy through membership in the Military Club.

The purpose of the organization is cooperation with the department of Physical Education, promotion of a spirit of democracy, physical and mental efficiency, good sportsmanship, and athletic and social activities.

Lincoln's "Arrow-collar" model is now coach at the University for the Feeble Minded. He says he has a terrible time trying to teach his football players that a football is not a watermelon.

MARTHA VERNA

The winsome, bashful, backward lass of the Wall Flowers' Union is at present a teacher of astronomy, but intends to become famous as the author of "How I Reduced My Double Chin."

MAURICE LEVINSON

The dramatic soprano of the Senior Girls' Glee Club is at present constable of the City of Watts and in the future intends to make his debut in the Metropolitan Opera House of New York

JIMMY VAN OSTEN

Famous heavyweight football player of 1926 is now engaged in coaching a group of winsome 200-pound bathing beauties in the dance of the seven veils.

ELMORE KEYES

Countess Hi Brow of the days gone by whose main ambition at the present time is to become a perfect "36" once again and thereby keep her husband's interests at home. We wish her luck but doubt it.

BEATRICE WILSON

The famous manager of the Students' Business in the Halls of Life is now engaged by Mr. Ziegfeld in performing exotic motions to the music of the Tin Pan Syncopators. She also models for nutritive advertisements.

IRMA FULTON

The gleeful giggling girl of the famous class of Summer 1926 is still engaged in gleefully giggling her girlish figure away. If she keeps on at her present rate, she will soon win the prize for the human skeleton of Barnum's Circus.

GEORGIA DUNLOP

Although this lady was quite bashful during her high school years, she is beginning to show the world what it has been missing. She has become a daring taxicab driver but intends to give up that profession to marry a titled foreigner and become woman checker champion of the world.

MARION PERONI

She is at present director of the choir in a leading local church, but intends to make wild animal training for the Selig Zoo her life work.

CLARENCE PAGENKOPP

The dainty, tripping, delicate "Peggy," president of the still daintier senior class, is now engaged by Fidel La Barba as mascot and hopes some day to become strong enough to learn how to dance the Charleston.

Boss: I'm sorry to hear that you've buried your wife.

Rastus: Ah just had to—she was dead.

Bud Ingalls, a very new office boy (who has just handed long column of figures to employer): "I've added those figures up ten times, sir."

Bud Ingalls (handing up another slip of paper): "An' here's the ten answers, sir."

Kenny: "Her name is Bell. They call her dinner bell."
Elmer: "Why?"
Kenny: "Every time you give her a ring she says, 'When do we eat?' "

Mildred J.: "They say Saturn has eight moons."
Ancil A.: "Gee, some place for hammocks."
